Correspondence for transmission by the above steamers must be endorsed "Per German Packet."

It is suggested that letters intended for transmission by any of the above lines should be secured with gum or wafers, as the use of sealing-wax causes delay in separating letters, and in some instances leads to envelopes being torn and addresses rendered illegible.

HOBART MAIL SIGNALS.

The following Signals are hoisted at the Battery Point Signal Station to denote the arrival of the English and Foreign Mails:—At Albany, a red flag with white cross; at Adelaide, a blue and white chequered flag; at Melbourne, a blue flag; at Low Head, a white flag with blue cross; at Hobart, a white flag with red cross.

A blue pennant at mast-head signifies that a delivery will take place at the General Post Office the same evening after arrival of the Express Train at 8·57 p.m.

When a Steamer from Melbourne is signalled off Low Head a red pennant is hoisted; a white pennant if the Steamer is from Sydney; and a pennant with red and white vertical stripes if from Adelaide. The following signals are hoisted at the General Post Office:—A red flag upon arrival of English and Inter-state Mails; a blue flag upon arrival of Inter-State Mails. These signals are lowered when mails are ready for delivery.

LAUNCESTON MAIL SIGNALS.

SUNDAY ARRANGEMENTS.

Postal.

1. Country Post Offices, where mails arrive late on Saturday night or on Sunday, shall, if required by the Deputy Postmaster General, open for the delivery of Correspondence for one hour before or after Divine Service as may be considered most convenient to the public.

Telegraphic.

2. An officer must be in attendance at the Chief Telegraph Office, of each State throughout the day and night to attend to inquiries. He will receive telegrams for transmission to similar offices within the Commonwealth at ordinary rates for press and double the ordinary rates for other telegrams; to certain principal offices in each State (mentioned in the list of Telegraph Offices, pages), which are in call at 9 p.m., at the foregoing rates; to New Zealand, Great Britain, and Foreign Countries at ordinary rates.

Telegrams may also be handed in at 9 p.m. at the last-mentioned offices for transmission at the rates quoted above.

HOLIDAY ARRANGEMENTS.

3. On Christmas Day and Good Friday the same arrangements shall be observed as on Sunday; and on other Public Holidays the arrangements shall be as follow:—

—	New Year's Day Easter Monday, King's Birthday, Boxing Day, and other Holidays proclaimed throughout the Commonwealth.	Other days proclaimed Holidays in any State.
General Post Office—
The Delivery Office, Dead Letter Office, Registration Office, and office for sale of postage stamps to be open	From 9 to 12 noon	As on ordinary days.
Private boxes to be open as usual.
The country mails usually despatched in the afternoon and evening, also the coastwise, Inter-State, and foreign mails, to close	At 12 noon unless otherwise specially intimated	As on ordinary days.
The first delivery only to be effected by postmen.
The Parcels Office to be open	From 9 a.m. to 12 noon	As on ordinary days.
The Money Order Office to be open	From 9·30 a.m. to 12 noon	As on ordinary days.
The Chief Telegraph Office to be open	As on ordinary	days.
Branch Offices in the Cities and Suburban and Country Offices to be open	9 to 12 noon, and if they do not ordinarily close at 6 p.m., from 6 to 8 p.m.	As on ordinary days.
The first delivery only to be made by postmen.
The iron pillar receivers and letter-boxes in the city and metropolitan suburbs to be cleared	Only at the ordinary hours in the morning.	As on ordinary days.

Note.—The above will not apply to local holidays gazetted for special purposes upon which days offices will be open as on ordinary days.

If British and Foreign mails arrive, or are despatched on any of the above-mentioned holidays, special arrangements must be made to suit the public convenience.

GENERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

LATE LETTERS.

Late letters for places within the Commonwealth are charged at a uniform fee of 1*d.* extra each. This Regulation applies also to loose letters sent to or from any other Australian State or Colony in the ship's box or bag, the deficiency in default being charged at the destination of such letters. On English mail days at Hobart (when the mail closes at 6 p.m.) letters for the United Kingdom may be posted until 7 p.m., at an extra single rate of postage.

Late newspapers, 1*d.* each.

SOLDIERS' AND SEAMEN'S LETTERS.

A postage of one penny shall be charged on letters not exceeding one half-ounce in weight forwarded by or addressed to seamen on actual service in the King's Navy, or in the Marine Defence Force of the Commonwealth or any British possession, or to a non-commissioned officer or man on actual service in the King's Regular Forces or in the Permanent Land Force of the Commonwealth or any British possession.

Provided that a letter forwarded by any such person shall not be transmitted or delivered at that charge unless it bears on its face the name of the writer and his class or description in his vessel, regiment, corps, or detachment, and the signature of the officer having command of the vessel, regiment, corps, or detachment.

Provided also that a letter addressed to any such person shall not be transmitted or delivered at that charge unless it bears on its face the name of the vessel, regiment, corps, or detachment to which the person to whom it is addressed belongs.

The foregoing shall not apply to letters forwarded by or addressed to a commissioned or warrant officer in the Land or Marine Forces, or a midshipman in the Marine Forces.

All such letters exceeding half-an-ounce in weight should be prepaid at the ordinary rates of postage.

LOOSE LETTERS.

When not prepaid, the postage on loose letters, postcards, letter-cards, and packets received from masters of vessels shall be collected on delivery, at the rate chargeable to the places whence such articles are received.

LETTER-CARDS.

[illegible] Cards are treated similar in form to Reply Postcards, but [illegible] inspection. If anything, however, is enclosed [illegible] will be regarded as letters and treated accordingly.

POSTCARDS.

[illegible] impressed with the 1*d.* stamp, and reply or [illegible] which has the 1*d.* stamp impressed thereon, [illegible] to places within the Commonwealth, and to New Zealand, Fiji, and British New Guinea. These cards may also be forwarded to places other than those mentioned above, provided that an extra ½*d.* adhesive stamp be affixed to each single card and to each half of a reply card.

Postcards, single, impressed with the 1½*d.* stamp, and reply, each half of which has the 1½*d.* stamp impressed thereon, may be transmitted to any part of the world.

Single cards must bear the heading "Postcard" on the face, and reply cards the heading "Postcard with Reply Paid" on the face of the first half, and "Reply Postcard" on the face of the second part.

Private cards (single and reply), bearing adhesive stamps, may also be transmitted as postcards, at the same rates of postage. They must be composed of ordinary cardboard—not thicker than the material used for the postcard issued by the Department, and of approved colour; may not measure more than 5½ x 3½ inches nor less than 4 x 3 inches; must bear the heading indicated above either in writing or in print on the face, and, in other respects must conform to the rules relating to postcards.

2. Postcards must be sent unenclosed. The name and address of the sender may be indicated on the face, either in writing or by means of a stamp, autograph stamp, or any other typographical process; and engravings or advertisements may be printed thereon. But nothing may be written or printed which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the postal directions ("Registered," "Acknowledgment of Delivery," &c.), or the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the stamps, or in any other way, is likely to embarass the officials of the Department in dealing with the postcard, and any postcard posted in contravention of this rule will be liable to be withheld from delivery.

On the reverse side or back of the card, any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise (advertisement, engraving, &c.), may be written or printed. Except address labels, or stamps in prepayment of postage (where necessary) no article of any kind may be affixed or attached to postcards, nor may a postcard be folded, cut, or in any respect altered. If any of these rules be infringed the card will be treated as a letter, and charged on delivery accordingly.

3. Unpaid, or insufficiently prepaid, postcards shall be charged double the deficient postage on delivery. The reply half of a double postcard issued in another State or country shall be available for return only to the State or country of origin, and must have been received through the post attached to the corresponding half, otherwise it shall be treated as unpaid and charged accordingly.

4. Should a postcard be observed to bear upon it anything of a profane, blasphemous, indecent, obscene, offensive, or libellous character, it shall not be delivered, and may be destroyed by order of the Postmaster-General or Deputy Postmaster-General.

5. When, owing to a great and unusual influx of mail-matter, the transmission or delivery of letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, post cards may be kept back until a later despatch or delivery.

6. The impressed stamp of a postcard may be used only in prepayment of postage on such postcard.

Impressing or printing stamps on Private Postcards.

One penny and one penny-halfpenny postage stamps may be impressed or printed under the following conditions, on cards supplied by the public, but application, accompanied by a specimen card, must first be made, in writing, to the Deputy Postmaster-General:—

1. The cards may not measure more than 5½ x 3½ inches, nor less than 4 x 3 inches, or exceed the thickness of the postcard issued by the Department, and must be of approved colour.
2. Not less than 500 cards of one size and in suitable sheets may be received for stamping at any one time.
3. There is no fee for stamping, but the value of the stamps must be paid in advance.
4. No commission shall be allowed on the value of stamps impressed or printed on postcards for licensed vendors.

PACKETS.

Definition of Packets.

Packets may consist of Commercial Papers, Printed Papers, or Patterns, Samples, and Merchandise as hereinafter defined.

1. WITHIN THE COMMONWEALTH AND TO BRITISH NEW GUINEA, NEW ZEALAND, AND FIJI.

Commercial Papers.

Commercial papers include all papers and documents not wholly printed, which have not the character of actual or personal correspondence, such as—

Acceptances.

Accounts, Invoices, and Receipts. The remark "With thanks," and advice as to when or how the goods are forwarded will be allowed; and they may bear the ordinary trade notices (whether printed or impressed with a rubber or other stamp), such as "All empties returned must be advised"; "When remitting please return the statement to be receipted"; "Terms, cash in advance"; "Terms, 2½ per cent. discount for cash"; "This settles your account up to date."

Bankers' packets, when sent from one bank to another, may contain cheques, cheque-books, drafts, or orders, provided they are forwarded in covers with the ends sufficiently open to admit of postal officials seeing that nothing in the nature of a letter is enclosed.

Bank pass-books—Provided they are enclosed in covers indorsed "Pass-book only," and sufficiently open to admit of postal officials seeing that "Pass-books" only are being transmitted. Pass-books or cards connected with a Society may be transmitted under similar conditions.

Bills of exchange.

Bills of lading.

Drafts.

Drawings (not wholly printed).

Examination papers (corrections allowed).

Insurance documents (policies, &c.).

Invoices (see Accounts).

Legal documents (affidavits, briefs, deeds, depositions, &c.).

Manuscript or forms filled up in writing for printing or publication.

Maps (not wholly printed).

Music (written).

Notices of Meetings.

Obliterated postage stamps.

Pay-sheets.

Plans (not wholly printed).

Prices current.

Promissory-notes, signed or unsigned.

Proxy forms or notices. Such particulars as the date, signature, name of proxy, date of meeting, name of shareholder or member, and number of votes may be inserted, but nothing may appear either in writing or print which does not form part of the document as a legal instrument.

Rate notices.

Receipts (see Accounts).

Returns or periodical statements.

Scrip.

Ships' manifests.

Specifications.

Spent letters—that is, letters which have clearly served their original purpose, and are at least two months old.

Stock sheets.

Travellers' cards, circulars, or orders.

Travelling Stock notices.

Way-bills, and other similar articles.

Except where specified, any writing in the nature of a letter or personal communication is not permissible, and, if any such writing appear on the article, the latter may be charged as an insufficiently prepaid letter.

A packet containing a mixture of commercial and printed papers shall be treated as if the whole contents were commercial papers.

The following may be allowed on commercial papers—

(a) To indicate on the outside of the missive the name, commercial style, and address of the sender.

(b) To add in manuscript on printed visiting cards the address of the sender, his title, as well as good wishes, congratulations, thanks, condolences, or other formulas of courtesy expressed in not more than five words or by means of conventional initials (p.f., &c.).

(c) To indicate or to alter in a printed paper in manuscript or by a mechanical process the date of despatch, the signature, and the commercial style and the profession, as well as the address, of the sender.

(d) To enclose copy with corrected proofs, and to make in those proofs alterations and additions which relate to correction, accuracy, and printing. In case of want of space, these additions may be made on separate sheets.

(e) To correct also errors in printing in printed documents other than proofs.

(g) To make prominent by means of marks, and to underline words or passages of the text to which it is desired to draw attention.

(h) To insert or correct in manuscript, or by a mechanical process, figures in prices current, tenders for advertisements, stock and share lists, trade circulars and prospectuses, as well as in travellers' announcements, the traveller's name and date and place of his intended visit.

(i) To indicate in manuscript in advices of the departure of ships the dates of those departures.

(k) To indicate in cards of invitation and notices of meetings the name of the person invited, the date, the object, and the place of the gathering.

(l) To add a dedication on books, sheets of music, photographs and engravings, Christmas and New Year cards, as well as to enclose the relative invoice.

(m) In forms of order or subscription for books, newspapers, engravings, pieces of music, to indicate in manuscript the works required or offered, and to erase or underline the whole or part of the printed communications.

(o) To add in manuscript or by a mechanical process to cuttings from newspapers and periodical publications the title, date, number, and address of the publication from which the article is extracted.

Printed Papers of all kinds except Newspapers.

Printed papers include all printed matter (except newspapers), such as books, magazines, pamphlets, sheets of music, visiting cards, address cards, circulars (wholly printed), proofs of printing, papers impressed with points in relief for the use of the blind, engravings, photographs, and albums containing photographs, pictures, drawings, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, and similar articles, whether loose or in book form.

The following may also be allowed to pass as printed papers, viz.:—

Circulars which are, in other respects admissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the typewriter, or are produced by means of any mechanical process from written or type-written originals, and may be transmitted at the "Printed Papers" rate of postage, provided they are handed in at the counter of a Post-Office, and at least twenty copies precisely identical are posted at the same time. Each cover must be marked by the sender "20 posted."

All printed matter with written additions, corrections, or alterations must be sent as commercial papers, but writing in the nature of a letter or personal communication is not permissible, and if any such writing appear on the article, the latter may be charged as an insufficiently prepaid letetr.

Cards bearing the inscription "Post Card" shall not be allowed to pass as printed papers.

Patterns, Samples, and Merchandise.

The following and similar articles may be forwarded under this class, viz.:—

Glass.
Merchandise.
Mineral specimens.
Natural history specimens such as dried or preserved animals or plants, geological specimens, &c., when sent for no commercial purpose.
Liquids, oils, and fatty substances.
Ointments, soft soap, resin.
Dry powders, whether dyes or not.
Paper.
Parchment or vellum.
Patterns.
Live bees and live but harmless entomological specimens.
Samples.
Seeds.
Wedding cake (securely packed).

Patterns and samples may contain the name and commercial style of the sender, the address of the person for whom they are intended, the manufacturer's or trade mark, numbers, prices, and indications relative to weight or measurement and dimensions, or to the quantity to be disposed of, or such as are necessary to determine the origin and the nature of the goods.

Terms and Conditions under which Packets may be Transmitted within the Commonwealth.

1. The maximum weight for a packet of commercial papers or printed papers shall be 5 lbs.; and for patterns, samples, and merchandise, 1 lb. No packet may exceed 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in depth or breadth, or if in a roll 2 feet 6 inches in length, or be of inconvenient form.

2. Wholly unpaid or insufficiently prepaid packets posted in the Commonwealth for delivery therein may be forwarded to destination charged with double the deficiency.

3. A packet may be sent through the post either without a cover (when it must not be fastened with anything adhesive), or in a cover entirely open at one end or side, or with the flap left unsealed, or fastened with a binder, or tied with string, so as to permit of easy withdrawal of the contents.

Glass must be securely packed in boxes of wood, metal, leather, or cardboard in such a way as to prevent all danger to the mails or officers of the Department.

Liquids, oils, and fatty substances easily liquified must be enclosed in glass bottles hermetically sealed. Each bottle must be placed in a wooden box furnished with sawdust, cotton, or spongy material in sufficient quantity to absorb the liquid in case the bottle should be broken. Finally, the box itself must be enclosed in a case of metal, of wood with a screw top, or of strong and thick leather. Where use is made of perforated wooden blocks of sufficient thickness (at least one-tenth of an inch in the weakest part, to prevent all risk of breakage, packed with a sufficient quantity of absorbent material inside and provided with a cover), the blocks need not be enclosed in a second case.

Ointments, soft soap, resin, and fatty substances which are not easily liquified must be enclosed in an inner cover (box, bag of linen or parchment, &c.), which must itself be enclosed in a second box of wood, metal, or strong and thick leather.

Dry powders, whether dyes or not, must be enclosed in cardboard boxes, which themselves must be enclosed in bags of linen or parchment.

Live bees and live but harmless entomological specimens must be secured in strong, safe, and properly-ventilated boxes or cages of wood or metal; the size of the box or cage not to exceed 12 in. x 6 in. x 4 in.; each box or cage to bear a label securely attached, giving name and address of sender, and particulars of contents. Boxes, &c., posted in violation of these conditions, or containing poisonous or dangerous live specimens, or improperly or insecurely packed shall not be transmitted. Specimens enclosed in cardboard boxes or other fragile material shall not be forwarded.

Officers of the Post Office may examine the contents of packets, in which case they shall securely refasten same; but, if possible, officials must satisfy themselves as to the contents without withdrawing them.

The covers of articles entitled to pass at the rate of postage for printed papers may have printed matter thereon, provided a clear and conspicuous space be left for the address. Matter produced by other mechanical processes may be transmitted as printed papers, provided at least 20 copies in identical terms be handed in at a Post Office.

If the foregoing conditions be not complied with, the packets shall be regarded as insufficiently paid letters, and be charged accordingly; but if, in the event of refusal by the addressees on being opened in the Dead Letter Office, they be found to contain only such enclosures as are entitled to pass at packet rate, and be fully prepaid at such rates, they shall be again forwarded to the addresses without charge. If, on receiving an article surcharged as above, the addressee opens it in the presence of the postmaster, and it is found to contain only matter that is entitled to pass at packet rate, the surcharge shall be remitted.

4. Samples of seeds, drugs, and similar articles, which cannot be sent in open packets, may be enclosed in bags or boxes, fastened in such manner as to be easily undone and refastened; or, in closed transparent bags. Manufactured articles, such as pills, sensitized photographic paper, &c., with the inner wrapper closed against inspection, may be forwarded at packet rate of postage, provided that such wrapper be that of the manufacturer of the articles.

5. Books may have on the title page complimentary and similar remarks, together with the names and addresses of the senders and of the persons for whom the books are intended, and the date of sending; passages to which it is desired to call attention may be marked with a single stroke. Anything in the nature of an epistolary communication will render the article liable to charge as an insufficiently prepaid letter.

6. All legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, &c., or of a portion thereof, is permissible, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached, as also rollers in case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise, in the case of books), or whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of such articles or usually appertains thereto.

In any case where an officer of the Department has good grounds for suspecting any infringement of the foregoing Regulations he may open the packet; and if any irregularity has occurred he must treat the packet as an insufficiently prepaid letter, and charge postage accordingly. Should the contents be such as are not allowed to pass through the post, he must retain them and report the circumstance to the Deputy Postmaster-General. Any packet so opened must be securely refastened.

7. Packets containing jewellery or other valuable enclosure must be registered. Bank-notes, coin, bullion, or gold may be sent only at letter rate of postage, and must be registered.

When, owing to a great influx of packets, the transmission or delivery of letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, such articles may be kept back until a later despatch or delivery.

Large quantities of advertising pamphlets, circulars, &c.—either singly or in bulk—are liable to Customs duty.

In order to secure the return of packets which cannot be delivered, the name and address of the sender must be printed or written on the cover: thus—"From of ."

Articles not allowed to be sent by Packet Post.

The following articles shall not be sent by packet post, viz.:—Cheques, Money Orders, Postal Notes—except in bankers' packets—coin, bank-notes, bullion, gold, and perishable substances, such as game, fish, flesh, fruit, vegetables, and any matter or thing likely to injure any person or the contents of the mail-bags; also articles not made up in accordance with the Regulations relating to packets, or bearing or containing anything not allowed under such Regulations.

2. TO THE UNITED KINGDOM AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

1. Commercial Papers.

"Commercial Papers" comprise all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from deeds under private seal written on stamped or unstamped paper, way-bills, bills of lading, invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of insurance and other public companies, all kinds of manuscript music, the manuscript of books and other literary works forwarded separately, pupils' exercises with corrections but without any comment on the work, and other papers of a similar description.

Packets of commercial papers may not exceed 5 lbs. in weight, and shall be subject, as regards form and conditions of transmission, to the Regulations prescribed for "Printed Papers."

2. Printed Papers of every kind (except Newspapers).

Packets of Printed Papers may not exceed 18 inches in length, width, or depth, or 5 lbs. in weight. They may be placed either in wrappers, upon rollers, between boards, in covers open at both sides or at both ends, or in unclosed envelopes, or simply folded in such a manner as not to conceal the nature of the packet, or tied with a string easy to unfasten, but must be made up in such a manner as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. Address cards and all printed matter of the form and substance of an unfolded card may be forwarded without wrapper, envelope, fastening, or fold.

The articles which shall be entitled to be sent as printed papers shall be, generally, impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or cardboard, by means of printing, engraving, lithography, autography, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying-press and the typewriter.

This description includes the undermentioned articles wholly printed:—Books (stitched or bound), periodical works, pamphlets, sheets of music, visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing, pictures, drawings, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, circulars, notices, engravings, photographs.

The following articles, though not really printed matter, may also be sent as such, viz.:—Manuscript intended for the press (when sent with the proofs of the same), papers impressed for the use of the blind, albums containing photographs, and cardboard drawing models stamped in relief.

Anything, not being of glass, usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles, in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post, may also pass at the rate applicable to such articles, provided it is contained in the same packet.

Cards bearing the prescription "Post-card," postage stamps, whether obliterated or not, and in general all articles constituting the sign of a monetary value shall not be transmitted as printed papers.

The products of the copying press and typewriter shall not be transmitted at the rate for printed papers, nor, as a rule, shall printed papers, the text of which has been modified after printing, either by hand or by means of a mechanical process, so as to constitute a conventional language. But the following exceptions may be allowed:—

Printed papers may be dated in manuscript or by a mechanical process, and the signature of the sender, his trade or profession, and his address may be added.

On printed visiting cards the address or title of the sender, or conventional initials, such as "p.p.c.," may be written, and also good wishes, congratulations, thanks, condolences, or other formulas of courtesy, expressed in not more than five words.

On printed circulars corrections and insertions may be made in manuscript or by a mechanical process in regard to names of commercial travellers, dates, and places of their intended visits, dates of departure of ships, names of persons invited to meetings, and the place, date, and object of the meetings.

Printers' proofs may be corrected in manuscript; additions which relate to accuracy, form, and printing may be made, and in case of want of space additional sheets may be used; the author's manuscript may be enclosed; printers' errors in other printed documents may also be corrected, and figures may also be inserted or corrected in prices current, tenders for advertisements, trade circulars, prospectuses, and stock and share lists.

Books, papers, music, photographs, engravings, and Christmas and New Year's cards may bear a written dedication, and the invoice relating to them may be enclosed.

In forms of order or subscription for books printed on cards, the works required or offered may be indicated in manuscript.

The title, date, number, and address of the publication from which the article is extracted may be added in manuscript or by a mechanical process to cuttings from newspapers and periodical publications.

Circulars which are in other respects admissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the typewriter, or are produced by means of any mechanical process from written or type-written originals, may be transmitted at the "Printed Papers" rate of postage, provided they are handed in at the counter of a Post Office, and at least twenty copies precisely identical are posted at the same time.

Exceptional treatment of Printed Matter in some Countries.

Advertisements or circulars relating to betting transactions may not be transmitted to the United Kingdom as printed matter.

An internal tax of two kreuzer, which is not a postal charge, is made by the Austro-Hungarian Government on the delivery of all newspapers reaching the empire from other countries.

All books and printed matter imported into the United States through the post, however small the value, are subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of that value. The undermentioned articles, however, are exempt from Customs duties:—

(b) Photographs and printed papers, other than books, in such small quantities as to suggest that they are intended for personal use, and not for sale.
(c) Books, engravings, photographs, etchings, maps, charts, and music, which have been printed more than twenty years, publications printed for private circulation or issued for subscribers, or exchanges by scientific or literary associations or academies, books and music in raised print for the use of the blind, and works printed exclusively in any other than the English language.

Books and periodicals addressed to the Republic of Columbia are liable to Customs duties unless intended for the personal use of the addressees. Books for Uruguay, whether bound or sewn, are liable to Customs duties, except when the whole value of those sent to any one addressee is less than 100 francs (£4).

Bound books sent to Portugal or Portuguese Colonies by post are subject to Customs duty. The wrapper should bear an indication of the nature of the contents, and also the words "a soumettre à la douane." Unless these conditions are complied with, the books will be liable, on delivery, to a fine in addition to the duty.

Although books sent to Italy, whether bound or unbound, are in strictness liable to Customs duty, they are admitetd by book post, provided they are not sent in considerable numbers to any one person.

In Belgium, books, newspapers, periodicals, maps, charts, printed music, prints, and artistic engravings and lithographs, are allowed to be imported by post; but other printed papers are subject to Customs duty, and their transmission by post is prohibited, unless they are sent singly, or in small quantities, as specimens.

In Canada, advertising pamphlets, circulars, &c., are liable to Customs duty.

In Spain, all books, printed or manuscript music, chromo-lithographs, engravings of all kinds, and industrial products (except samples of textile goods) received by post are liable to Customs duties. Such packets, addressed to Madrid, Barcelona, Seville, or Corunna, are charged with the ordinary Customs duty, but those addressed to any other place in Spain are liable to a fine of from five to ten times the amount of duty in addition.

In Egypt, printed works are subject to Customs duty of 8 per cent. ad. valorem. One copy of a work, either in one or more volumes, will be delivered duty free; but if more than one copy be transmitted to the same address, the additional copies will be taxed by Customs officers, and delivered only on payment of duty.

In India, works of arts (including photographs), ruled and printed forms, account and manuscript books, labels, advertising circulars, sheet or card almanacs, and calendars, Christmas, Easter, and other cards, and toy books, are liable to Customs duties, unless sent in small quantities by private individuals for private use; any such articles considered by the Indian Post Office to be merchandise will be delivered only on payment of Customs charges.

Printed matter or matter produced by other mechanical processes, either wholly or partly in Russian, will not be admitted into Russia, and even such trifling articles as photographs and Christmas cards are liable to Customs duty, though a single photograph may be sent to Russia by post. All letters or packets containing prohibited or dutiable articles of any kind, however small the value, are confiscated.

To Venezuela only articles not liable to Customs duty, namely:—Printed books, in sheets or unbound, treating of science, arts and manufactures, catalogues, copy-books for elementary schools, geographical maps, topographical plans of mines, newspapers, posters or advertisements relating to commerce, enterprises, or manufactures are transmissible as printed matter.

3. Patterns and Samples.

The pattern and sample post shall be restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Packets containing goods for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity), or any articles which are not actually patterns or samples, may not be forwarded by pattern and sample post.

The maximum dimensions and weight for a packet of patterns and samples shall be as follow:—

(a) To the United Kingdom—2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth, 5 lb. in weight.
(b) To all other places—1 foot in length, 8 inches in width, 4 inches in depth; or when in the form of a roll, 1 foot in length and 6 inches in diameter, 12 oz. in weight.

Patterns and samples must be placed in bags, boxes, or removable envelopes, in such a manner as to admit of easy inspection. They may not bear any writing except the name or the commercial style of the sender, the address of the person for whom they are intended, a manufacturer's or trade mark, numbers, prices, and indications relative to weight or measurement, and dimensions, or to the quantity to be disposed of, or such as are necessary to determine the origin and the nature of the goods.

Such articles as glass, scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch, machinery metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, must be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mails and to the officers of the Post Office. Explosives shall not be transmitted.

Liquids, oils, and fatty substances easily liquefied, must be enclosed in glass bottles, hermetically sealed. Each bottle must be placed in a wooden box furnished with sawdust, cotton, or spongy material in sufficient quantity to absorb the liquid in case the bottle be broken, and the box must be enclosed in a case of metal, of wood with a screw top, or of strong and thick leather. If perforated wooden blocks of a reasonable thickness, with a sufficient quantity of absorbent material inside, and provided with a cover, be used, the blocks need be enclosed in a second case.

Fatty substances which are not easily liquefied, such as ointments, soft soap, resin, &c., must be enclosed in an inner cover (box, bag of linen or parchment, &c.), which must itself be placed in a second box of wood, metal, or strong and thick leather.

Dry powders, whether dyes or not, must be placed in cardboard boxes, which should be enclosed in a bag of linen or parchment.

Articles of natural history, dried or preserved animals or plants, geological specimens, &c., when sent for no commercial purpose, may be transmitted by pattern and sample post, provided they are packed in accordance with the general regulations concerning samples of merchandise.

Live bees, and live but harmless entomological specimens, may be transmitted by sample post.

All live specimens must be secured in strong, safe, and properly ventilated boxes or cages of wood or metal. The size of the box or cage must not exceed 12 in. x 6 in. x 4 in. Each box or cage must bear a label, securely attached, giving the name and address of sender and particulars of contents.

Boxes, &c., posted in violation of these conditions, or containing poisonous or dangerous live specimens, or improperly or insecurely packed, shall not be transmitted. Specimens enclosed in cardboard boxes or other fragile material shall not be forwarded.

Samples of raw tobacco may be transmitted to the United Kingdom, if intended for the trade, and not exceeding 4oz. in weight; a fee of 9*d.* for Customs duty will be collected from the addressee on delivery. Samples of raw tobacco which do not fulfil these conditions, manufactured tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, or snuff, may not be transmitted.

Articles containing tobacco, no matter under what form forwarded, are not admited into the French Postal Service.

Samples of tea, exceeding 3 oz. in weight, are liable to Customs duty in the United States of America.

General.

Unpaid packets of printed papers, commercial papers, or patterns and samples, or those not made up in accordance with the preceding Regulations, shall not be transmitted.

Insufficiently prepaid packets shall be charged double the deficiency on delivery.

In order to secure the return of packets which cannot be delivered, the names and addresses of senders must be printed or written on the cover thus—

From of Articles Grouped Together.

Printed papers, commercial papers, patterns and samples of merchandise may be forwarded in the same packet under the following conditions:—

1. That each article taken singly shall not exceed the limits applicable to it as regards size and weight.
2. That the total weight of any packet shall not exceed 5 lb.

PACKETS LIABLE TO CUSTOMS DUTIES.

Any packet received from places beyond the Commonwealth which contains or is suspected to contain any article or articles on which Customs duty should be paid may be opened for examination, and the duty as assessed by the Customs Officers must be paid before such packet can be delivered to the addressee.

Any packet containing articles forwarded in violation of any Act or regulation of the Customs shall be forwarded to the Collector of Customs, to be dealt with in the usual manner.

NEWSPAPERS, INLAND AND INTERSTATE:—RATES OF POSTAGE, REGULATIONS, HOUR OF POSTING, &c.

1. Newspapers printed and posted in the State for delivery at any place within the State beyond the boundaries of the City or Town at which they may be published, and posted within seven days from the date of publication	Free.
2. Newspapers printed and posted in the State for transmission to New Zealand, if posted within seven days from the date of publication	Free.
3. Newspapers posted in Tasmania for transmission to New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, and Western Australia, of the weight of 10 ounce and under, irrespective of the date of publication	½*d.* each.
Each additional 10 ounces and under	½*d.*
4. Newspapers and other periodical publications for Queensland, not exceeding 2 oz. in weight	½*d.* each.
Each additional 2 oz. or fraction thereof	½*d.*
5. Newspapers printed and posted in the State after seven days from the date of publication	½*d.* each.
6. Newspapers posted within any city, town, or district in the State for delivery by letter carriers within such city, town, or district	½*d.* each.
7. Newspapers received from places beyond the limits of the State shall be delivered free; but when re-posted, whether in single numbers or stitched monthly parts of two or more numbers, shall be subject to a charge for each number	½*d.* each.
8. Bulk parcels of newspapers posted by a registered newspaper publisher or newsvendor (no parcel containing less than six newspapers to pass at bulk rates), per pound or fraction thereof	1*d.*

9. The Hobart Gazette, published by the Government Printer, and The Council of Agriculture Gazette, published by Council of Agriculture, and the Braille Newspaper, published by the Society for the Blind, are exempted from the above rates, and may be posted for delivery in any part of the State free of charge.

10. Newspapers liable to postage must be fully prepaid by affixing stamps of sufficient value.

11. Newspapers for despatch to all places must be posted half an hour before the closing of the mail.

NEWSPAPERS.

Definition of Newspaper and Supplement.

(1) A newspaper shall mean any publication known and recognised as a newspaper in the generally accepted sense of the word, and printed and published within the Commonwealth for sale if—

(a) it consists in substantial part of news and articles relating to current topics, or of religious, technical, or practical information; and

(b) it is published in numbers at intervals of not more than one month; and

(c) the full title and date of publication are printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication are printed at the top of every subsequent page.

(2) A publication printed on paper and issued as a supplement to a newspaper shall be deemed to be a supplement and to be part of the newspaper if—

(a) it consists in substantial part of reading matter other than advertisements, or of engravings, prints, lithographs, or coloured supplements; and

(b) it is enclosed in each posted copy of the newspaper with which it is issued; and

(c) it has the title of the newspaper with which it is issued printed on the top of each page of letterpress; and

Registration of Newspapers.—Removal from Register.

(1) The proprietor, printer, or publisher of any newspaper, as defined by section 28 of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1901, may register it at the General Post Office of any State subject to the following conditions:—

(a) The application for registration must be made in writing.

(b) It must contain a description of the newspaper to be registered, and show at what intervals the same is or is intended to be published.

(c) It must be accompanied by a copy of the newspaper to be registered, and a fee of 5*s*.

The Deputy Postmaster-General of such State may from time to time, subject to appeal as hereinafter mentioned, revise the register, and may call upon the proprietor, printer, or publisher of any publication, a posted copy of which contains indecent or obscene matter, or which by reason of the proportion of advertisements to other matter therein or for any other reason is not within the foregoing definition, to show cause why such publication should not be removed from the register, and if sufficient cause be not shown he may remove it accordingly, and any publication for the time being on the register shall be deemed a registered newspaper. Publishers of registered newspapers are required to print on the first page of each copy issued the words "Registered at the General Post Office, Hobart, for transmission by post as a newspaper."

(2) No publication which after the expiration of one month from the 1st December, 1901, is tendered for transmission at any Post Office in the Commonwealth shall be sent by post as a newspaper unless the foregoing provisions have been complied with.

(3) Any proposed change in the form of a newspaper must be submitted for the consideration of the Deputy Postmaster-General.

(4) Any Deputy Postmaster-General may refuse to transmit or deliver any issue of a publication if such issue contains indecent or obscene matter.

(5) Any posted newspaper found to contain indecent or obscene matter may be destroyed by order of the Postmaster-General.

(6) No action shall be brought against the Postmaster-General or any officer of the Department for anything done or purporting to be done under the foregoing provisions, but any person aggrieved by anything so done or purporting to be so done by the Postmaster-General or a Deputy Postmaster-General may appeal to a Justice of the High Court or to a Judge of a Supreme Court of the State by summons or petition in a summary manner. The Justice or Judge may decide whether the action taken was justified in law or in fact, and may make such order as to restoration to the register or otherwise as to him may seem just, and may award damages and costs, or either, in his discretion.

Consequence of irregularity.

All unregistered or irregularly-posted newspapers, and all newspapers having any matter which is not a supplement accompanying them, shall be treated as packets.

General regulations.

A newspaper may be sent either with or without a cover but must be open at both ends, and there shall not be in or upon any such newspaper or the cover thereof any communication, character, figure, letter, or number (other than the words "newspaper only"; or a line drawn through any report, article, or paragraph therein; the printed title of such newspaper, the printed names, occupations, and places of business of the printer, publisher, and vendor thereof, the name, occupation, and address of the person to who mit is sent, and the name of the person who sends the same), nor shall anything other than a supplement be enclosed in, or with, or accompany such newspaper or cover, otherwise such newspaper shall not be transmitted or delivered.

Provided always that any newspaper bearing on the cover or outside of the fold, any printed matter, not permitted for newspapers, may be transmitted at the rate charged for "printed papers."

If a newspaper addressed to any place within the Commonwealth be found to contain writing or any illegal enclosure, it may be forwarded to its destination charged according to its weight, with the full amount of postage at the rate to which the enclosure would properly be subjected; but if the newspaper be addressed to any place beyond the Commonwealth, it shall be sent to the Dead Letter Office. This regulation shall apply to any newspaper whether posted in the Commonwealth or received from places beyond.

Newspapers except those forwarded in bulk, addressed to several persons, to be delivered separately at each address, must not be tied up in bundles, and each newspaper must bear the proper postage.

Two or more newspapers to the same address can be tied together, but the outside newspaper or wrapper must bear on its face or addressed side the full postage for each paper, and the parcel should be tied so that the number of papers can be counted.

Newspapers (not being those forwarded in bulk) made up in packets bearing the same address can be transmitted at printed-paper rate of postage, but the weight of any such packet must not exceed 5 lbs.

Collected numbers of a newspaper shall not be transmitted through the post as a single newspaper, but postage must be paid on each copy contained therein.

If newspapers be posted wholly unpaid they shall not be forwarded; if insufficiently prepaid they shall be sent to destination charged with double the deficiency.

When, owing to a great influx of newspapers, the transmission or delivery of letters would be delayed if the whole were dealt with without distinction, newspapers may be kept back until a later despatch or delivery.

For information respecting exceptional treatment of printed matter in some foreign countries see page 23.

REGISTRATION.

Any letter, letter-card, postcard, packet, or newspaper, complying with the Regulations relating thereto, and bearing the registration fee of 3*d.* in addition to the correct amount of postage, shall be accepted for registration. The registration of an article renders its transmission much more secure, and the loss of a registered article is a very rare occurrence; the public are advised to register all articles containing anything of an important nature, and when sending bank notes, drafts, &c., to take note of the numbers and other particulars thereof.

Articles intended for registration should on no account be dropped into a pillar-receiver or posting-box, but must be presented at a post or receiving office during ordinary office hours, and a receipt for same obtained on the proper form.

Where any postmaster or officer of the Post Office has reasonable cause to believe that any unregistered letter or packet contains any valuable enclosure other than money orders or bills of exchange, acceptances, or promissory notes payable to order, cheques, or postal notes or postage stamps not exceeding five shillings in value, such postmaster or officer may register such letter or packet, and charge it with double the prescribed fee for registration, and the sum to be so paid shall be written on such letter or packet by the postmaster or officer of the Post Office who registers the same, and such fee shall be paid by the person to whom it is addressed before delivery, unless such person, before delivery, opens the letter in the presence of some postmaster or officer of the Post Office, and it is found not to contain any valuable enclosure, in which case such fee shall not be charged.

If it is believed that an unregistered letter or packet addressed to the United Kingdom, or to any other country beyond the Commonwealth, contains an article of value such letter or packet should be forwarded to the Dead Letter Office.

All registered articles addressed to places beyond the Commonwealth must be forwarded to destination without charge, and registered articles received from such places must be delivered without charge for postage.

The transmission of coin, gold, silver, jewellery (including precious stones), &c., by letter or packet post is prohibited in the following countries; such articles, other than coin, may, however, be sent by parcel post, except where they are specially prohibited (see pages 59-67):—

Ceylon,	Labuan,	Newfoundland,
Falkland Islands,	Lagos,	St. Vincent,
Gambia,	Malta,	Sierre Leone, and
Gibraltar,	Montserrat,	Straits Settlements,
Hong Kong,

articles of value are transmissible, and, with the exception of jewellery addressed to Ceylon, Newfoundland, and St. Vincent, are exempt from Customs duty. Their transmission is also permitted in Bermuda, Cyprus, and Grenada, but they are liable to Customs duty, with the exception of bullion, coin, and diamonds in Bermuda; gold, bullion, and specie in Cyprus; gold, silver, and diamonds in Grenada.

In France, engravings, prints, drawings, and chromo-lithographs, are liable to Customs duty, and may not be sent in quantities sufficiently large to have a saleable value, but small quantities may be sent as bonâ fide specimens.

In the Dutch East Indies articles of value are admissible, except wrought gold and silver, but the packets containing them must be registered.

Special prohibitions.—In Bulgaria, Cape Colony, Dutch East Indies, Italy, Norway, Servia, Transvaal, and United States of America, anything relating to foreign lotteries; in Roumania, [bound] books; in Belgium, bronze, copper, and nickel coin; in Bermuda, jewellery; in Grenada, current coin and articles liable to Customs duty; in Italy, growing plants; in Liberia, gold and silver articles.

In Cape Colony, Natal, and New Zealand jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Russia.—Printed matter or matter produced by other mechanical processes, either wholly or partly in the Russian Language, is prohibited; and even such trifling articles as photographs and Christmas cards are liable to duty, though a single photograph may be sent to Russia by post. All letters or packets containing prohibited or dutiable articles of any kind, however small the value, are confiscated in that country.

In Spain the transmission by letter post of dutiable articles is prohibited, and any such articles sent contrary to this prohibition are liable to a fine of from five to ten times the duty.

In the Transvaal, gold, silver, jewellery, &c., are liable to Customs duty.

Acknowledgment of Delivery of Registered Articles.

The sender of a registered article may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery to the addressee or other person to whom it is delivered by paying in advance, at the time of registration, a fee of 2½*d.* in addition to the postage and registration fee.

The sender must enter, in the form provided for the purpose, both his own name and address, and the name and address of the person to whom the article is sent, and he must also affix to the form in payment of the fee, a postage stamp of the value of 2½*d.* which the Postmaster or other officer should cancel in the ordinary way. Should an application for this form be made at an office at which there are no forms on hand the fee of 2½*d.* should be paid by postage stamps, and a memorandum furnished, giving the name and address of both the sender of the article and the addressee, the proper form will then subsequently be made out by an Officer of the Department and forwarded with the article to its destination. The same procedure should be observed when the sender applies for an acknowledgment of delivery of a registered article after the article has been transmitted.

Compensation for Loss of Registered Articles.

Compensation may be granted for the loss of registered letters, packets, books, and newspapers (but not for parcels), under the following regulations:—

In the event of the loss of any such article, registered by the sender, posted in the Commonwealth for transmission therein, or to—or posted in any one of those countries for transmission to the Commonwealth; except in cases beyond control (e.g., tempest, shipwreck, earthquake, war, &c.), compensation up to, but not exceeding in any case, £2 may be allowed by the State or country in whose service the loss has occurred.

In every case it must appear that the loss did not arise wholly, or in part, through the fault of the sender, and that it actually occurred whilst the article was in the post.

Evidence of the loss of a registered article shall be given by a statutory declaration made by, or on behalf of, the claimant, setting forth—

(a) The date when and the place where such article was posted, so far as the same can be reasonably ascertained;

(b) A description of the article and its value, so far as is known to the claimant, and the fact of the loss;

(c) Any other particulars required by these Regulations, or tending to establish the loss and verify the claim made;

but further or additional reasonable evidence may be required in proof of such alleged loss or value.

In lieu of granting compensation, the missing article may be replaced by the Postmaster-General, who, in either case, reserves the right to return, or dispose, as he thinks fit, of the article should it subsequently come into his hands.

No compensation will be given in respect of—

(I.) Any article which may not be lawfully sent by post.

(II.) Money, unless it be sent by letter-post, and then only on the following conditions being complied with—

(a) That any coins enclosed in the letter be packed in such a way as to move about as little as possible.

(b) That the number, amount, bank of issue, and (where necessary) the date of any bank note enclosed be supplied when required.

(c) That the amount and number of any postal note enclosed be supplied when required.

(d) That particulars sufficient to identify the document be supplied in the case of any bill of exchange, bond, coupon, or other order or authority for the payment of money, or security for money.

(III.) Injury or damage alleged to have been sustained in consequence of the loss, damage, or delay of an article.

No legal liability to give compensation in respect to the loss of any registered article shall attach to the Postmaster-General, either personally or in his official capacity, and the decision of the Postmaster-General, as to whether compensation shall or shall not be granted, shall in all cases be final.

Inquiry respecting Delivery of Postal Articles.

If the sender of a postal article desire inquiry made respecting its disposal, he shall enter in a form provided for the purpose both his own name and address and the name and address of the person to whom the article was sent, and he must also affix to the form a postage stamp in payment of the fee of 2½*d.* which the Postmaster or other Officer must cancel in the ordinary way. Should any delay in delivery be attributable to the Post Office the fee shall be refunded. If a fee has been paid for acknowledgment of delivery no charge for the inquiry shall be made.

Any person making a complaint that an unregistered letter or packet containing coin, jewellery, gems, watches, or any other valuable enclosure has not been duly delivered to the person to whom it was addressed may be required by the Postmaster of the Post Office at which the complaint is made to make a declaration in the Form provided and to pay the fee (2½*d.*) before any inquiry is instituted.

Exemption from Postage.

All petitions and addresses to the Governor-General or to the Governor of any State shall be transmitted and delivered free of charge if such petitions or addresses do not exceed 16 ounces in weight respectively, and are without covers or in covers open at the ends or sides.

Official correspondence from the Department relative to the postal and telegraphic service, and telegraphic messages upon which all fees payable have been paid, may be transmitted free by post for delivery within the Commonwealth.

Prepayment of Postage Optional.

It shall not be necessary to prepay the postage upon letters or packets containing only returns of births, baptisms, marriages, and deaths transmitted in compliance with the provisions of the law in that behalf by ministers of religion or other persons, whose duty it is to transmit such returns to any officer appointed to receive the same, if on the outside thereof it be stated that they contain such returns only, and such statement be signed by the person transmitting the same; but the postage thereon at prepaid rates shall be paid by the said officer on delivery of such letters or packets.

It shall not be necessary to prepay the postage upon letters or packets containing only ballot papers or voting-papers or other electoral documents and sent in compliance with the law in that behalf to any electoral officer of a State, if on the outside thereof they bear a statement, signed by the sender, that they contain such matter only; but the postage thereon at prepaid rates shall be paid by such officer on delivery of the letters or packets.

Prepayment of Postage.

Except as provided in the next section, prepayment of postage upon all classes of mail-matter posted in the Commonwealth can be effected only by means of postage stamps valid in the Commonwealth, for the correspondence of private individuals; but if a postmaster has not stamps of the requisite value on hand he may receive the amount of postage and fees in coin, in which case he shall acknowledge its receipt on the face or cover of the article.

The postage stamps upon all postal articles must be impressed or affixed upon the face thereof, and near the address written thereon, and no postmaster shall be bound to take any notice of stamps impressed or affixed elsewhere.

The impressed stamps of stamped envelopes, letter-cards, postcards, or newspaper wrappers shall not be used for prepayment of postage on other articles. Duty stamps, mutilated postage stamps, postage due stamps, the impressed stamps on telegram forms, or the postage stamps of any other country are not available in the Commonwealth for prepayment of postage.

The reply halves of reply postcards bearing postage stamps of the country in which such cards were issued are considered as duly prepaid if addressed to such country.

Prepayment in Cash, in One Sum, of Postage on Large Quantities of Mail-matter.

The postage on large quantities of letters, packets, or newspapers for transmission within the Commonwealth, or to New Zealand or Fiji, may be prepaid in cash. The amount of postage on such mail-matter, posted at one time, shall not be less than £1. The posting may be done at the General Post Office and at Launceston. No postmaster, other than those at the offices referred to will be permitted to receive cash in prepayment of postage under this regulation without first obtaining authority from the Deputy Postmaster-General. The mail-matter must be handed in at the post office between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.; the full amount of postage payable thereon must be affixed in postage stamps to a docket to be obtained from the postmaster, and the person posting must cancel the stamps by writing his or her name or initials across the face thereof in the presence of the postal officer to whom the mail-matter is handed; the latter must then date-stamp the docket and forward it to the Accountant, General Post Office. Articles of the same weight must be tied in bundles of ten or any multiple thereof up to one hundred, with the addresses in the same direction.

Redirection.

No charge shall be made in the Commonwealth for the redirection of prepaid postal articles (other than parcels), whether redirected by an officer of the post office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided that in the latter case the articles be reposted not later than the day (Sunday and public holidays not being counted) after being left at the original address, and do not appear to have been opened or tampered with. If reposted later than the above-mentioned period, or if it appear to have been opened or tampered with, it shall be chargeable as a freshly posted unpaid article.

If the postage prepaid on the article was not sufficient for its transmission from the place of origin to the new address, the deficient postage shall be charged on delivery.

Registered letters or packets, on being redirected, must not be dropped into a letter-box, but must be taken to a post office to be dealt with as registered. No additional postage or registration fee shall be charged upon them if they are presented for re-registration not later than the day (Sunday and public holidays not being counted) after being left at the original address; but if they are presented after that time they shall be treated as freshly posted, and fresh postage and registration fees shall be payable in respect of them.

If any registered letter or packet when redirected, instead of being given back to the post office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into a letter-box as an ordinary letter or packet (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to surcharge on delivery.

Applications for redirection must in all cases be signed by the person to whom the correspondence is addressed, and must state whence it is expected. They will be acted on for a term of six months only, unless renewed. A printed form of application may be obtained at any post office in the Commonwealth.

Correspondence addressed to a post office to initials or noms-de-plume shall not be redirected, but must be obtained at the offices of address.

To prevent delay or error, correspondents should be advised of change of address.

The Postmaster-General may refuse to intercept articles at any office other than that to which addressed or to intercept those addressed to the care of private box-holders.

Undelivered Mail-matter.

Letters and packets with indorsement on the cover, "If not delivered within (seven or more) days, return to ————" (here the name and address of the person to whom the letter or packet is to be returned should be stated), will, if undelivered at the expiration of the time specified, be returned by the Postmaster at the office of address to the sender.

Letters or packets not indorsed for return to the senders within a specified time, as provided by Section 46 of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1901, if posted in any State of the Commonwealth for delivery in the same State, must be kept at the post office of address for one month waiting delivery. If received from another State of the Commonwealth, they must be kept at the post office of address for two months. If received from a place beyond the Commonwealth, they must be kept at the post office of address for four months. At the expiration of the respective periods the letters or packets must be returned through the Returned Letter Office to the writers if posted in the State to which addressed, and if not, to the State or country of origin.

Newspapers must be kept at the office of address for one month waiting delivery, and at the expiration of that period must be forwarded to the General Post Office for disposal according to law; but if the covers or wrappers bear in print the name of the publisher or vendor the newspapers must be returned, if so required, to such publisher or vendor, on payment of postage at the prescribed rate.

Unpaid letters or post cards, and all insufficiently paid articles, which are returned to the country of origin as redirected or as undeliverable, shall be subject to the same rates of postage as similar articles addressed directly from the country of the first destination to the country of origin.

Correspondence for persons whose residence cannot be found shall be left at the post office.

Private Boxes.

Locked Private Boxes may be rented at the General Post Office, and where provided at other post offices, on payment, in advance, of a fee of £1, £2, or £3 per annum, according to the size of box required.

Payments must be arranged so that renewal fees fall due on the 1st January in each year; new subscribers to pay the proportion of fee at the annual rate from the first day of the quarter in which they commence to the end of December following.

Two keys shall be supplied with each box, but a fee of 1*s.* shall be charged for the use of each additional key supplied, and keys must not be obtained elsewhere than from the Department. On a box-holder relinquishing the use of a box he shall be required to at once return all keys supplied to him, as they are the property of the Postmaster-General, otherwise he shall be charged the rental fee for the box until they are returned.

If a key be lost, information must at once be given to the officer in charge of the local post office and the remaining key or keys returned to such officer, when a new lock for which a charge of 5*s.* shall be made will be fitted in the box, and two keys supplied.

The Postmaster-General may refuse to let a private box to any person or persons, or to cancel the tenancy of a private box at any time, if he considers such box is intended to be, or is being used for objectionable purposes.

Private boxes shall be let only on the foregoing conditions, and upon any breach thereof the Postmaster-General may at once withdraw permission for the use of the box.

Note.—It materially facilitates the sorting, and consequently the delivery, of correspondence when it bears as portion of the address the number of the box. The Postmaster-General, therefore, invites the assistance and co-operation of correspondents and box-holders in this regard.

Private Posting Boxes.

1. Arrangements may be made for the clearance, when practicable, of unregistered letters, letter cards, and post cards, from private posting boxes of approved pattern at business premises, &c.

2. Officers of the Postmaster-General's Department shall have access to the box for the purpose of clearing it, and they alone shall possess the keys for opening it.

3. The clearances of the box shall be made at such times as the Deputy Postmaster-General may arrange.

4. The boxes must be on the ground floor of the premises in which they are located, and the charges for clearance, which are payable in advance, shall be as follow, viz.:—

Twice a day (Sunday and holidays excepted)	...	£4 per annum.
Thrice a day "	...	£5 "
Four or more times a day "	...	£6 "

5. A notice shall be affixed to these boxes as follows:—

"Any article put into this box will not, for the purpose of any enactment, law, or contract, whereby the due posting is evidence of the receipt thereof by the addressee, be deemed to have been duly posted."

6. Application with regard to the clearance of a box must be made to the Deputy Postmaster-General.

Private Mail Bags.

A private mail bag may be made up for any person or for a number of persons, residing on a mail route, but beyond a mile from a post office, subject to the following regulations:—

1. The charge for making up a private bag shall be £2 per annum, payable in advance.

2. Payments must be arranged so that renewal fees fall due on the 1st January in each year; new subscribers to pay the proportion of fee at the annual rate from the first day of the quarter in which they commence to the end of December following.

3. The bag, which must be of leather or strong canvas, must be provided at the cost of the person requiring it, and be large enough to contain all articles sent and received by post; if furnished with a lock, two keys must be provided—one for the postmaster and the other for the owner.

4. The postmaster must lock or seal the bag for despatch, and it must be returned in like manner; if a seal is used, the impression must be made known to the postmaster.

5. The bag may contain postal articles for all persons in the employ of the proprietor, or who, with the written consent of the proprietor of the bag, give written authority to the postmaster to enclose them in such bag. The person who pays for the bag shall be responsible for the unpaid postage on all postal articles contained in the bag. He must furnish receipts for such of its contents as may have been registered, and forward to the post office acknowledgments of delivery, duly signed by the addressees.

The proprietor of the bag must return all correspondence for persons who have left his station or place, and also any letters, &c., enclosed in error.

Every bag must have printed upon it, or upon a leather or metal label, securely attached to the bag, the name of the owner, or the place where it is to be delivered, as well as the name of the post office with which it is exchanged.

When a bag is made up for a number of persons the name of one of the number, to whom the bag may be addressed, must be specified.

Telegrams enclosed in a private bag may be transmitted free of postage; but other correspondence so enclosed and intended for delivery at the township where the bag is opened or for onward despatch, must bear the correct amount of postage payable thereon.

6. In case of non-payment of postage or detention of receipts or acknowledgments for registered articles, the postmaster may decline to forward any more articles of those classes.

7. A contractor is bound to convey and deliver, free of charge, all private bags given him by the postmaster or under his instruction, but he is not required to deviate from the usual mail route or road, unless instructed by the Deputy Postmaster-General, and must on no account be delayed. Should the return bag not be ready at the appointed time and place, the contractor must not wait for it.

Postage Stamps, Stamped Envelopes, Letter Cards, &c.

Every Postmaster is required to procure and keep on hand for sale without premium a sufficient supply of postage stamps, letter cards, post cards, registration envelopes, and newspaper wrappers, to meet the requirements of the public in his district.

Postage stamps—½*d.*, 1*d.*, 2*d.*, 2½*d.*, 3*d.*, 4*d.*, 5*d.*, 6*d.*, 8*d.*, 9*d.*, 10*d.*, 1*s.*; 2*s.* 6*d.*, 5*s.*, 10*s.*, 20*s.*, and such other denominations as may be approved from time to time.

Letter cards—2*d.* each.

Post cards—Single, 1*d.*; reply, 3*d.* each.

Registration envelopes of three sizes—4 in. x 2½ in., 5 in. x 3 in., and 9 in. x 4 in., with embossed stamp—3*d.* each (which covers registration fee only).

Impressing Stamps on Envelopes, Wrappers, Etc., for the Public.

Postage stamps of the value of one halfpenny, one penny, and twopence may be impressed on envelopes, envelopes combined with sheets of note-paper, or newspaper wrappers supplied by the public for that purpose, provided that not fewer than 500 envelopes or wrappers of any one size be supplied at the one time and that the paper for wrappers be in sheets and not cut in slips. Coloured envelopes, or wrappers, or those too thin to bear the impression of the die shall not be accepted. Envelopes or wrappers provided by the Postmaster-General's Department, with the proper stamp thereon, may be substituted for any which may be spoiled in the operation of stamping.

The charges, which must be paid in advance, shall be:—

The value of the stamps, and 2*s.* per thousand, or portion of a thousand, for the work of stamping.

Sale of British and Foreign, New Zealand, and Inter-State Postage Stamps.

The 2½*d.* postage stamps of Great Britain and Foreign Countries, the 2*d.* stamps of New Zealand and the Australian States may be purchased in small quantities at the General Post Office. These stamps are intended to enable the senders of letters, &c., to those places to enclose the postage for replies. Commission will be charged at the rate of 1*d.* on every 6*d.* worth or portion thereof.

Perforation, Etc., of Postage Stamps by Business Firms, Etc.

Any person, with the permission in writing of the Deputy Postmaster-General, may perforate postage stamps with such letters, figures, or design as are prescribed in such writing, and stamps so perforated shall not be considered to be defaced, and shall be received in payment of any postage fees or dues and telegraph fees, but no stamps so perforated shall be purchased or exchanged by any postmaster or servant of the Department, nor may such stamps be affixed to postal notes for the purpose of remitting broken sums in pence.

Sale of Lightly Post-marked Postage Stamps.

Postage stamps issued in the several States of the Commonwealth, lightly post-marked, may be purchased at their full face value.

Repurchase of Postage Stamps and Post Cards.

Postage stamps in strips of at least two in good order and condition, may be repurchased from the public, at the General Post Office of the State of issue only, at their face value, less a discount of 2*s.* in the pound, or according to the following scale, viz.:—For stamps not exceeding in value 1*s.* 8*d.*, twopence; exceeding in value 1*s.* 8*d.*, but not exceeding 3*s.* 4*d.*, fourpence; exceeding in value 3*s.* 4*d.*, but not exceeding 5*s.*, sixpence; and so on at the rate of twopence for every 1*s.* 8*d.* or portion of 1*s.* 8*d.* Provided that no single stamp exceeds 5*s.* in value. Applications for the repurchase of stamps of denominations of above 5*s.* must be made to the Deputy Postmaster-General. Stamps shall be purchased only when not perforated, soiled, or otherwise damaged.

Envelopes, &c., having unobliterated embossed postage stamps, and spoiled letter cards, and post cards bearing undefaced stamps may also be repurchased at the General Post Office, subject to a discount at the above-mentioned rates.

Licences to Sell Postage Stamps.

1. Any person desiring a licence to sell postage stamps must make written application to the Deputy Postmaster-General, stating where his or her premises are situated, and the nature of the business carried on by the applicant.

2. A licence shall be granted without charge, may be revoked at pleasure, and authorizes the sale of postage stamps at the premises named in the licence only.

3. A notice must be exhibited in some conspicuous place in front of the premises licensed, with the words "Licensed to Sell Postage Stamps" painted in letters at least 1 inch in height and of proportionate breadth.

4. Licensed vendors must purchase for cash, and may be allowed a commission of 2½ per cent. on purchases of not less than £3 at any one time, but they must not use postage stamps for the payment of accounts, nor for remittances.

5. Any licensed vendor found dividing with the public the commission allowed by the Department on postage stamps purchased by him, or offering consideration with the view of inducing any person to purchase postage stamps at his place of business, shall be liable to have his licence cancelled.

6. Any person selling or exposing for sale, without licence, any postage stamp, or exhibiting without authority any sign indicating that he is licensed to sell postage stamps, is liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

Daily Mail Notice.

One copy of the Mail Notice published each day may be supplied to private box-holders and to persons calling for same at the General Post Office on payment in advance of 5*s*. per annum, or delivered by postmen, on their first round, on payment in advance of 10*s*. per annum. Payment, in either case, must date from 1st January in each year.

Blasphemous or Obscene Letters, etc., may be Destroyed.

The Postmaster-General, or the Deputy Postmaster-General, may at any time cause any postal article having anything profane, blasphemous, indecent, obscene, offensive, or libellous written or drawn on the outside thereof, or any obscene enclosure found in any postal article to be destroyed. Provided, however, that any person aggrieved by any such action on the part of the Postmaster-General, or the Deputy Postmaster-General, may appeal to a Justice of the High Court or to a Judge of the Supreme Court of the State by summons or petition in a summary manner.

Indecent and Obscene Matter, etc.

The Postmaster-General, or the Deputy Postmaster-General, may refuse to transmit or deliver any newspaper, packet, or parcel containing any article, book, picture, or advertisement, or any printed or written matter in the nature of an advertisement, which article, book, picture, advertisement, or matter is of an indecent or obscene nature, and may cause any such newspaper, packet, or parcel to be destroyed.

Sending Explosives or Noxious Substance, or Indecent Articles, etc.

Any person who knowingly sends or attempts to send, by post, any postal article which—

(1) Encloses an explosive or a dangerous, filthy, noxious, or deleterious substance, or a sharp instrument not properly protected, or a living noxious creature, or any other thing likely to injure other postal articles in course of conveyance, or to injure an officer of the Department or other person; or

(2) Encloses an indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, card, or article; or

(3) Has thereon or therein, or on the envelope or cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, blasphemous, libellous, or grossly offensive character, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years.

Miscellaneous Regulations and Suggestions.

1. The Postmaster-General is not, by law, responsible for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery, missending, wrong delivery, or delay in the delivery of any postal article (even if registered), nor for any injury which the contents may sustain during its transmission.

2. To guard against injury all postal articles which are likely to suffer from stamping or from great pressure should be placed in strong covers; and even with this precaution no fragile articles should be sent except by parcel post. It should be remembered that every article has to be handled several times, and that it is exposed to considerable pressure and friction in the mail-bag during its transit through the post.

3. No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public. A postmaster may, however, give an address if he has no reason to believe that the person whose address it is would disapprove of his doing so.

4. When any information regarding postal matters particulars of which do not appear in the Postal Guide, is required, application should be made in writing to the Deputy Postmaster-General, to whom letters of complaint should also be addressed. For any error in a reply to a verbal application the Postmaster-General does not hold himself responsible.

5. Unless a request to such effect be written or printed thereon, when it may be returned at the expiration of the time (not less than seven days) specified thereon, postmasters are not allowed to return any letter, packet, or newspaper to the writer or sender thereof, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address without either the consent in writing of the person to whom the same is addressed, or the direction in writing of the Postmaster-General.

6. Postmasters are not compelled to give change; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

7. Postmasters are not compelled to weigh any letters, packets, or newspapers for the public if their duties be impeded by so doing. This rule does not apply to parcels which are tested both as to weight and size before being accepted.

8. If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will repost it at his office, the letter, on being reposted, must be indorsed with the words "Posted at ———, under cover to the Postmaster of ———."

9. Every address should be legible and complete. When a postal article is sent to a post town the last word in the address should be the name of that town, except when the town is but litle known, or when there are two places of the same name, or when the name of the town is identical with the name of some other town. In such cases the name of the State or country should be added. Thus, the last part of the address of a letter to Croydon should be "New South Wales," "Victoria," or "Queensland;" or, in the case of Maryborough, "Victoria" or "Queensland."

Much difficulty is experienced in the delivery to the rightful owners of postal articles imperfectly addressed; and the Department has frequently incurred unjust censure either for unintentionally delivering such articles to wrong persons, or for declining the responsibility of delivering them at all. The address of every article ought to be full and distinct; and in the case of the larger towns the name of the street (and occupation, when any) should always form part of the address.

10. Any person who, on receiving a surcharged letter, has reason to think it has been wrongly taxed, should take it, before it has been opened, to the post office to be weighed, and if it then appear that it does not turn the scale, should have its exact weight certified in writing. This will in most cases be sufficient evidence that the letter has been erroneously charged, though sometimes, owing to the paper being damp when it is posted, a letter weighs more than when it is delivered, and it is the weight at the time of posting that determines the charge. Unless this course is followed, no question as to the correctness of the surcharge can afterwards be entertained.

11. To facilitate delivery, a letter-box should be affixed to the door of every house, or in any other convenient position readily accessible to the postman.

12. Circulars before being posted should be tied in bundles with all the addresses in one direction.

13. No postal officer is permitted to take money in prepayment of postage (except as specified in the Postal Guide, see page 36), when postage stamps are available, or to affix postage stamps to articles posted at any post office.

14. It is the duty of postmasters, whenever they have ground for suspecting an infringement of any of the conditions relating to commercial papers, pattern and sample packets, newspapers, and printed papers generally, and occasionally even where there is no ground for suspicion, to open and examine packets posted at or passing through their offices.

15. Every letter should contain the full address of the writer in order to insure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found. A much larger portion of the undelivered letters could be returned if the names and addresses of the senders were always plainly stated inside or embossed on the envelopes.

16. The practice of sealing letters with wax (except such as is specially prepared) is attended with much inconvenience, and frequently with serious injury, not only to the letters so sealed, but to the other letters in the mail, from the melting of the wax and adhesion of the letters to each other. The public are therefore recommended, in all such cases, to use either wafers or gum, and to advise their correspondents to do the same.

17. In order that no failure may occur in the delivery of newspapers through the covers becoming detached, it is recommended that the addresses be written on exposed parts of the newspapers themselves, as well as on the covers.

18. Money should not be sent through the post, except by means of a money order, postal note, or in a registered letter.

19. When a complaint is made of a letter or packet being lost, missent, or delayed, information, as precise as possible, regarding all the facts of the case should be furnished, together with any documents that may throw light upon the matter. The day and hour at which the letter or packet was posted, as well as the office at which and the person by whom this was done, should always be stated; and in case of delay, the cover or wrapper in an entire state should, when possible, be sent, in order that the place of delay may be ascertained by an examination of the date stamps.

20. All important letters or packets should be registered, as in the case of unregistered articles it is almost impossible to prove either posting or delivery, or to trace them through the Post Office. The system of registration affords a complete record from the time that the receipt is obtained by the sender until the article is delivered.

21. Postal articles addressed to deceased persons may be delivered to the executors or administrators of such deceased person on production of the probate or letters of administration; but until such production the Postmaster-General, or a Deputy Postmaster-General, may cause such postal articles to be delivered to some near relative of the deceased person.

22. Whenever any person becomes or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent by any court of competent jurisdiction within the Commonwealth, if so directed by the order of the court, any postal article addressed to such bankrupt or insolvent shall, until a date to be specified in such order, be delivered to the official receiver or other person named in such order.

23. Correspondence posted on the high seas in the letter-box on board a packet, or placed in the hands of the commander of a ship may be prepaid by means of the postage stamps, and according to the postage rates of the country to which the vessel belongs, or by which it is maintained. If, however, the posting takes place during the stay at one of the two extreme points of the voyage, or at any intermediate port of call, prepayment can only be effected by means of the postage stamps, and according to the rates of the country in the waters of which the vessel happens to be.

24. Mail contractors are required to receive (beyond a mile from a post office) correspondence intended for delivery along their line of route. If fully prepaid and for delivery before a post office is reached, the mailman must cancel the stamps, by crossing them with ink, or in some other effective manner. If the correspondence be unpaid or insufficiently prepaid it must not be delivered, but posted at the next post office on the line of route, whence it must be despatched to destination charged with double the deficiency, to be collected on delivery. All correspondence so received must bear an indorsement by the mailman indicating the particular point on the road at which it was received.

25. Any person conveying for hire or reward, otherwise than by post, a letter not exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster-General is liable to a penalty of not less than £5 nor more than £50 for every letter so conveyed. Mail contractors are prohibited from carrying, or permitting their servants or passengers to carry, any letter or packet to the prejudice of the Post Office revenue.

26. The addressees of books, &c., weighing over 1 lb. must take delivery thereof at the Post Office, as the Department cannot undertake to deliver by letter-carrier bulky articles that may impede the general distribution of correspondence.

27. Upon collection of the postal charges due on taxed mail matter, and before delivery thereof, officials must affix to each such article "postage due" stamps equal in value to the sum received, and cancel such stamps, either with the office stamp or in some other effective manner. The public are invited to bring under the notice of the Department any neglect on the part of postal officials in this respect.

28. Telegrams and postal articles sent by post and addressed to any person at any inn, hotel, or at any lodging-house, or at any house at which lodgers are received, and delivered to the manager or occupier thereof, if not delivered to the addressees within one month after receipt, must, unless instructions to the contrary be received from the addressee, be returned to a postman or to the nearest post office, and be thence transmitted in due course to the General Post Office. Any owner, occupier, or manager of such inn, hotel, &c., who wilfully neglects to return such telegrams or postal articles is liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

29. Undelivered correspondence addressed to the care of consuls and returned by them to the local post office must be treated in the manner prescribed for returned correspondence and sent to the Dead Letter Office. Any postage charges must be refunded to the consuls.

Collection of Letters by Postmen.

Postmen must receive all properly stamped letters that may be handed to them when engaged in their deliveries for the purpose of being posted at the post office to which they are attached, or to be deposited in the nearest or most suitable pillar-box, or other receptacle provided for the reception of letters; provided that postmen shall not in any case be required to accept such letters within a radius of a quarter of a mile from the nearest posting place, or to wait for them.

Letters received as above must be dealt with so as to insure the most speedy transmission to the post office for which they are intended.

POST OFFICE EXPRESS DELIVERY SERVICE BY TELEGRAPH MESSENGERS.

Letters and packets not exceeding 8 ounces in weight may be specially delivered as follows, namely:—

(1) By special messenger all the way.—To secure this service letters and packets must be handed in at an "Express Delivery" post office.

(2) By special messenger after transmission by post.—For this service a letter or packet may be posted at any post or receiving office, or in any letter-box or posting receptacle, and be "expressed" on reaching the delivery office, provided such office is an express delivery office.

(3) By special delivery in advance of the ordinary delivery by postman.—By this means any person may make an arrangement with the postmaster of any express delivery office to secure the immediate delivery of his own correspondence on its arrival.

(4) Special delivery by travelling mail officers at all railway stations where the mail trains are timed to stop without passing through the local post office or waiting local delivery.

1. Local Service by Special Messenger all the Way.

At the General Post Office of each State, letters and packets not exceeding 8 ounces in weight may be accepted. They may also be accepted at such offices as are designated "Express Delivery Offices," and determined by the Deputy Postmaster-General from time to time.

For a letter or packet not exceeding 8 ounces in weight the charge shall be, for the first mile or part of a mile, in addition to the proper postage, 4*d.*, provided that the minimum rate, including postage, shall not be less than 5*d.* for every additional half-mile or part of half-a-mile, up to 2 miles, 2*d.*

Express messages may be delivered by foot-messengers, by omnibus, or by bicycle, at the discretion of the Department. If the sender desires a cab or other special conveyance to be used, the actual fare must be paid in addition to the express fee and postage.

At suburban and country post offices the express delivery shall be limited to one mile from the post office.

All charges, including both postage and fee, must be fully prepaid by postage stamps affixed to the letter or packet.

Any letter or packet intended for express delivery must not be posted in a letter-box but handed in during the hours when the office is open for ordinary business. After the office has closed it may be posted in the letter-box in the ordinary manner, but will not be delivered until the following morning.

The words "Express Delivery" must be boldly and legibly written by the sender above the address in the left-hand corner of the cover. When posted in a letter-box there must be in addition a broad perpendicular line drawn from top to bottom both on the front and the back of the cover.

There shall be no express delivery on Sundays or on holidays.

All articles handed in or posted for express delivery must be immediately marked with the date and time of posting. Where a date stamp showing hours and quarter-hours in plain figures is in use, it will be sufficient to date-stamp such articles with the stamp, showing the hour and quarter-hour of posting. At offices where a stamp of this description is not used the article must, in addition to dating with the stamp in ordinary use, be marked with the exact time of posting, thus, "9/5 A," indicating five minutes after nine a.m. In the same manner, fifty-five minutes after twelve noon must be indicated by "12/55 P."

When a reply is required to an express delivery letter or packet, the words "Wait Reply" must be legibly written by the sender immediately under the words "Express Delivery," and the postage and fee required for the reply must be affixed by postage stamps immediately under the above indorsement on the article to which a reply is desired. The messenger may be allowed to wait ten minutes for the reply.

When the letter or packet sent in reply, or as a further service, is to be taken to an address on the messenger's homeward route, the express delivery fee shall be 3*d.* in addition to the ordinary postage, otherwise the full fee as for the original service must be prepaid.

Articles in reply or further service can only be accepted after the messenger has delivered all the express delivery articles originally intrusted to him.

A telegraph messenger on delivering a telegram may, if desired, take back to the post office at which he is employed a letter or packet for express delivery. The postage and fee must be prepaid by the sender by means of stamps affixed to the article. The express fee shall be charged as from the residence of the sender, and not from the office where the messenger is employed.

2. Express Delivery after Transmission by Post.

Letters and packets intended for express delivery from the post office of destination only may be posted like ordinary articles, but they must be clearly marked "Express Delivery," and have a thick perpendicular line drawn on each side of the envelope. The fee of 4*d.* in addition to the ordinary postage must be prepaid by affixed postage stamps. Letters and packets marked as directed and fully prepaid shall be delivered by special messenger immediately after receipt of the mail in which they are enclosed.

The conditions already specified for express letters and packets for the local service shall also apply to those intended for express delivery after transmission by post.

3. Special Delivery of Letters and Packets in Advance of the Ordinary Deliveries, at the Request of the Addressee.

Persons or firms who desire at any time to receive their letters or packets, not exceeding the weight of 8 oz. each, or in the aggregate a total weight not exceeding 4 lbs., in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special messenger on payment of the following fees, viz.:—

The full express fee of 4*d.* a mile or fraction of a mile for one article, and ½*d.* each for every additional article beyond the first.

Written application for such special delivery must be made by the person to whom, or firm to which, the letters or packets are addressed. The applications must be addressed to the officer in charge of an express delivery office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered. If possible, they should be delivered by hand, but if posted must be prepaid as ordinary letters. Applications must reach the office an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by postman commences.

The express fee on at least one article must be prepaid by stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the special messenger on delivery.

If no letters or packets for the address given are found, a special messenger shall be sent to inform the applicant to that effect, and the express fee shall be retained to pay for this service.

In cases where a special delivery of letters, &c., arriving by any particular mail, or a regular delivery by special messenger is required, either on one or more days of the week, it will be sufficient if application is made accordingly and left with the officer in charge. In such cases the whole of the charges shall be collected upon delivery of the letters and packets.

4. Express Letters or Packets for Delivery from Travelling Post Offices, without passing through the Local Post Office.

Letters or packets with the ordinary postage fully prepaid, together with the usual late fee, and an express delivery fee of 4*d.* affixed by postage stamps, may be handed to any travelling mail officer for delivery at any railway platform where the mail train is timed to stop. Such articles must be marked by the sender "Express Delivery" in the manner previously directed, and this indorsement must be covered by the date stamp of the T.P.O. to indicate that no further or local express delivery service is required. The sender must arrange for a special messenger to meet the train on arrival at the platform and apply at the travelling post office for the article. If this be not done the letter or packet must be handed loose to the person carrying the mails to the local post office, and delivery must be obtained in the usual manner.

PARCELS POST.

1. Limit of Weight and Size.

Parcels not exceeding 11 lb. in weight, 3ft. 6in. in length, or 6 ft. in length and girth combined, may be accepted for transmission from and to all parcel post offices in the Commonwealth, served by railway, coach, or steamboat. Parcels from or to parcel post offices within the Commonwealth not served by railway, coach, or steamboat (for list of such offices see page 82, &c.), must not exceed 3 lb. in weight; should a parcel be received exceeding that weight addressed to a place to which it is not transmissible, it must be forwarded to the nearest parcel post office on the mail route, served by railway, coach, or steamboat, and the addressee be duly advised thereof. The Inland parcel post is not at present in operation in Western Australia, and parcels are not conveyed by horse services in Queensland or South Australia.

For list of Parcel Post Offices, and limits of weight, in the Commonwealth, see page 82, &c. The limits of weight and size for other countries will be found on pages 59–67.

Parcels exceeding 11 lb. in weight or of greater dimensions than those prescribed shall not be accepted for transmission through the post. Any such parcels which may be irregularly posted must not be forwarded to destination, but, if practicable, returned to the sender.

2. Postage must be Prepaid.

The postage must be fully prepaid by means of adhesive postage stamps, which the sender or person handing in the parcel must affix either close to the address on the wrapper, or to a label, obtainable at any Post Office. If the contents of a parcel be of a fragile nature, or postage stamps will not readily adhere to the wrapper, such stamps must be affixed to a tie-on label attached to the parcel.

Postal officials must not affix postage stamps to the labels or covers of parcels.

3. How to Address and Pack.

In addition to the name and address of the person for whom it is intended, every parcel must bear the name and address of the sender on the wrapper, thus: From of

The contents of parcels must be securely packed and closed in such a manner as to preserve them from injury and from injuring other parcels. Parcels containing—must be so securely packed as to prevent the contents from escaping, and the covers or vessels in which they are enclosed must be sufficiently strong to prevent breakage in transmission. The word "Fragile" or "Perishable," as the case may be, and the nature of the covering or vessel, and contents, must be indorsed on the outer wrapper. The edges and points of all sharp instruments must be protected, and articles which are likely to injure other articles must be packed in separate parcels. When considered necessary by the Postmaster-General, hermetically-sealed tins, and wooden packing-boxes, with a sufficient quantity of absorbent matter, must be used.

(c) liquids or semi-liquids—medicines, oils, paints, jellies, &c.

The wrappers of parcels which have become torn or damaged in transit must be made as secure as practicable. If the address of any parcel be rendered illegible, such parcel must, if possible, be returned to the sender.

4. Directions as to Posting.

A parcel intended for transmission by parcel post must not be posted in a posting box or pillar, but must be handed in at a parcel post office, and the officer to whom it is handed must check the weight, size, and postage, before accepting it; if it be not fully prepaid, or exceed the limits of weight or size, it must not be accepted.

Should an article which is transmissible through the post only as a parcel be posted in a posting box or pillar, instead of being handed in at a parcel post office in the prescribed manner, it must be regarded as irregularly posted, and, if not exceeding 1 lb. in weight, must be forwarded as a letter or packet under the rule relating thereto; but when in excess of that weight, if posted at and addressed to a parcel post office, and bearing full parcel postage, it must be forwarded on as a parcel; otherwise it must be returned to the sender on payment of an additional fee of 6*d.* for each parcel, if for delivery within the Commonwealth; but if addressed to any other colony or country it must be detained to permit of the sender being communicated with, if practicable; if not properly packed it must, if possible, be returned from the parcel post office of receipt to the sender. The procedure adopted with regard to parcels so posted, which are insufficiently prepaid, shall be as follows:—

(a) If for delivery within the Commonwealth, the parcel shall be forwarded to destination; but double the deficient postage shall be charged on delivery;

(b) If addressed to any place beyond the Commonwealth, the sender must, if possible, be at once communicated with, and the parcel detained until the requisite amount of postage due on the parcel and on the notice sent has been obtained. If the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained, the addressee shall be notified of its detention and of the reason therefor, and informed that on receipt of the amount of the deficiency and the postage on the notice sent to him the parcel will be duly forwarded to destination.

Should an irregularly-posted parcel not bear an address sufficient to permit of its despatch to destination, the sender must, if possible, be written to and informed that on furnishing the requisite address and on payment of the amount of postage on the notice sent to him, together with any deficient postage on the parcel, it will be forwarded to destination.

5. Customs Declaration to be made by Sender in Certain Cases.

The sender of a parcel addressed to any place beyond the State of origin must sign a declaration (on a form provided for the purpose and obtainable free of charge at any parcel post office) furnishing an accurate statement of the contents of the parcel and the value thereof, the address and the sender's signature and address, which declaration must be affixed to the parcel to which it relates. The net weight or quantity of the various articles contained in a parcel must, if possible, be stated, and any other particulars which would facilitate the assessment of Customs Duty—such as, in the case of clothing, the material, and whether it is new or has been worn. If articles which are being returned to the country of origin are enclosed it must be so stated.

When parcels are intended for Foreign Countries, the information may be furnished in the language of the country of destination or any other foreign language, at the wish of the sender, but in addition it must also be written in English.

Any parcel with regard to which it is found that a false declaration has been made may be confiscated.

6. Certificate of Posting and Acknowledgment of Delivery.

The registration system is not applicable to other than value-payable parcels, but a certificate of the posting of one parcel, or any number of parcels posted at the one time by the same person or firm, for transmission to places within the Commonwealth may be obtained without charge. In the case of parcels addressed to places beyond the Commonwealth a charge of 3d. shall be made. This charge must be affixed to the form of certificate, in postage stamps, which must be defaced with the office stamp. The form must, in all cases be filled in by the sender or his representative, and handed in at the parcel post office with the parcel or parcels.

If the form be duly handed in accompanied by a fee of 2*d.* per parcel (in addition to the charge for a certificate of posting, where one is payable) a special receipt from the addressee, or other person to whom such parcel if addressed to any place within the Commonwealth is delivered, acknowledging the receipt thereof, must be obtained and forwarded to the sender.

7. Prohibited Articles.

Neither coin, bullion, gold, nor any article constituting the sign of a monetary value (such as cheques, postal notes, money orders, &c.), may be sent by parcel post; if a parcel be found to contain any such article it shall be sent to the Dead Letter Office for disposal.

A parcel may not contain a letter, neither may it contain any article intended for delivery at an address other than that borne by the parcel itself. Should a parcel contain any such enclosure it may be surcharged on delivery double the postage which the enclosure would have cost if sent separately. If a parcel bear on the cover thereof any communication in the nature of a letter it may be subjected to a fine of 6*d.* on delivery. Invoices, business cards, printed matter, price lists, or particulars of contents may, however, be enclosed in parcels addressed to places within the Commonwealth.

No parcel bearing or containing any indecent, obscene, profane, or libellous writing, signature, address, mark, design, print, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, card, or other article, nor anything explosive or liable to sudden combustion, live animals, offensive or filthy matter, nor, unless properly packed, any article likely to cause injury to other parcels or to the officers of the Post Office shall be accepted for transmission. Should any such parcel be detected in transit through the post the objectionable contents shall be confiscated. Should the contents of any parcel become offensive or otherwise objectionable while in the possession of the Post Office they may forthwith be destroyed.

Live bees and live but harmless entomological specimens may, if properly packed, be transmitted within the Commonwealth and to and from the United Kingdom.

Parcels containing articles, the transmission or importation of which is prohibited by the laws and regulations of the Commonwealth or of the State or country of destination, shall not be sent by post.

8. Opening of Parcels and Examination of Contents.

Parcels may be opened and examined by Postal Officers, but after so opening the examining officer must securely refasten them. In the case of parcels from places beyond the State of destination, their contents may be examined by the Customs officers in the parcel post office, and, where duties are payable, the same must be paid before the parcels are delivered. Parcels may, however, be forwarded in bond to places where Customs officers are stationed, to be opened in the presence of such officers, who must collect and account for any duty payable on them. Parcels, the contents of which are not dutiable, must be forwarded at once to the parcel post office nearest to destination.

The necessary Customs entries will be passed free of cost to the addressees of parcels received.

9. Delivery of Parcels.

Where satisfactory arrangements can be made parcels shall be delivered as addressed. At all other parcel post offices notice shall be given to addressees, and delivery must be taken at the parcel post office. In all cases senders must advise addressees by post of despatch of parcels, so as to insure prompt delivery.

A receipt must be given by the addressee or his agent before delivery of a parcel. In the case of roadside delivery, addressees may authorise a mailman to receive and sign for their parcels at the parcel post office nearest to their address; but any such authority must be in writing, with the name of the mailman inserted.

10. Demurrage.

Parcels addressed to a parcels post office "to be called for" shall, after they have remained in the office twenty-one clear days (excluding Sunday and public holidays) be charged demurrage at the rate of 1*d.* a day; the maximum charge shall be 1*s.* 6*d.* per parcel. No demurrage shall, however, be charged on parcels for places at which there is no house-to-house delivery, or addressed to persons on board ship.

11. Return of Parcel on Request before Delivery.

If the sender of a parcel posted for delivery within the Commonwealth apply for its return to him prior to its despatch from the office at which it was posted, such parcel shall be handed back without charge, but the postage paid thereon shall not be refunded. If, after its despatch from the office at which posted, but before delivery to the addressee, the sender applies for the return of a parcel, the request must, if possible, be complied with, but before it is handed back to him, the sender must pay half postage at the fully prepaid rate, but not less than 6*d.* together with the cost of telegram of advice, if one has been required, and any other charges due on such parcel.

12. Redirection.

On receipt of a properly signed authority from the sender or addressee a parcel shall be redirected, subject to the following conditions:—

(a) If the redirection be from one address to another within the same delivery no charge shall be made therefor.

(b) If the redirection be to another delivery or post town within the Commonwealth, the charge therefor shall be half postage at the fully prepaid rate, but not less than 6*d.*, which must be remitted with the request for redirection, otherwise the amount must be charged on the delivery of the parcel. A fresh charge shall be made for each such redirection.

(c) If the redirection be to a country beyond the Commonwealth, the parcel shall be subject to additional postage at the fully prepaid rate.

(d) If, after delivery, a parcel be redirected, it shall be subject to additional postage at the fully prepaid rate. No dutiable parcel shall be redirected to any place within a State until the duty thereon has been paid.

13. Refused and Undelivered Parcels.

(a) Posted in the Commonwealth for delivery therein.—Parcels refused by the addressee shall, if possible, be at once returned to the senders; and those bearing a request on the face of the cover thereof, for their return to the senders if undelivered after the expiration of seven (7) or more days (but not exceeding one month) shall be so returned. Other parcels, which cannot be delivered, shall be retained at the office of address for one calendar month from the date of receipt, after which they shall be forwarded to the Chief Parcels Office of the State, whence, if possible, they shall be returned to the senders. Half postage at the fully prepaid rate, but not less than 6*d.*, for each parcel so returned must be paid by the sender before the parcel is handed back to him.

Parcels which cannot be delivered to the addressees or returned to the senders shall be retained at the Chief Parcels Office of the State for a period of three months, after which they shall be sold by public auction.

(b) Received from places beyond the Commonwealth.—Parcels which cannot be delivered shall, in the absence of instructions from the senders respecting same, be retained in the State of destination for a period of three months, when, if still undelivered, they shall be returned to the senders through the colonies or countries whence they were received.

In all cases, where possible, the senders of refused or undelivered parcels must be consulted, as early as practicable, as to the disposal thereof.

The contents of undelivered parcels which have been returned to the Chief Parcels Office of the State of origin, and cannot be delivered to the sender, shall be sold or destroyed as may be directed by the Deputy Postmaster-General.

14. Despatch of Parcels to Destination.

The Department shall use every means to forward parcels to destination as promptly as possible, but it shall not be necessary, in all cases, to forward them by the first mail after posting.

15. Postmaster-General not responsible for loss of Uninsured Parcels.

Except as specified in the regulations relating to Insurance of Parcels, the Postmaster-General shall not be responsible for damage to, delay, non-transmission, non-delivery, or loss of any parcel.

16. Payment of Customs Duty by the Sender of a Parcel.

Arrangements have been made whereby persons sending parcels to the United Kingdom, or Cape Colony, or to the undermentioned countries and places, viâ the United Kingdom, can take upon themselves the payment of the Customs and other charges ordinarily payable by the addressees:—

Foreign Countries.

Algeria.	French Guinea.	Martinique.
Austria-Hungary.	Germany.	Montenegro.
Belgium.	Guadeloupe.	Obock.
Dahomey.	Holland.	Reunion.
Denmark.	Italy.	Senegal.

Barbados.	Lagos.	St. Lucia.
Cyprus.	Montserrat.	St. Vincent (West Indies).
Dominica.	Natal.	Tobago.
Falkland Islands.	Nevis.	Tortola.
Gambia.	Sierra Leone.

The sender must pay a fee of 6*d.*, sign an undertaking to pay on demand the amount due, and make a deposit on account of the charges at the rate of 1*s.* for each 4*s.* or fraction of 4*s.* of the declared value of the parcel. A final settlement will take place as soon as the amount of the charges due has been ascertained from the country of destination. Parcels intended to be sent under these arrangements must be handed in at an Official or Railway Parcel Post Office, which is also a Money Order Office.

PARCELS POST.—RATES OF POSTAGE, ETC.

PARCELS are received for transmission only to the countries mentioned in this table, and are forwarded by the routes specified. No parcel will be accepted if exceeding the maximum weight for which the postage rate is given in the table. The following shall be the rates of postage charged on Inland and Inter-State parcels, viz.:—

NOTE.—Parcels from Places beyond Tasmania.—Parcels sent from London, or viâ London, are not transmitted by the same route as ordinary correspondence, but are shipped in England and brought in the vessels to Melbourne and thence to Hobart or Launceston, consequently they are not due in Tasmania until at least a week after arrival of letters despatched same time. Parcels from India are not sent overland from Adelaide, as is the case with letters, but are in like manner brought in the ships to Melbourne and thence to Tasmania. Letters found in parcels will, according to Regulation 10, be taxed letter rate as from office of despatch, together with a fine equal to the amount of postage.

17. INSURANCE OF PARCELS.

1. Parcels for the undermentioned places may be insured against loss or damage whilst in transmission through the post.

2. The sums payable for insurance, in addition to ordinary postage, shall be as follow:—

3. The fee for insurance must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which the sender must affix to the parcel with the stamps in prepayment of postage.

4. A Certificate of Insurance must always be obtained by the sender of an insured parcel. The necessary particulars must, as far as practicable, be inserted in the form of certificate by the sender or his representative. No charge shall be made for the issue of such certificate.

5. No parcel may be insured for a sum in excess of the real value of the contents; an invoice, or description of contents, and the value of each article contained in the parcel, must be enclosed therein. Over insurance shall be a bar to compensation.

6. Parcels containing any of the following articles shall be excluded from insurance, viz., liquids, or semi-liquids; perishable articles, such as eggs, butter, fruit, flowers, confectionery, &c.; fragile articles, such as glassware, &c.

Under no circumstances shall compensation be given for the loss of or damage to a parcel containing any of the above-mentioned articles.

7. Every parcel intended to be insured must be carefully and substantially packed, with due regard to the nature of the contents and the length of the journey, and must be secured in such a manner as to prevent tampering without leaving obvious traces of violation.

8. Parcels containing watches, except those in nickel or other base metal covers, jewellery, or any article of gold or silver, must be enclosed in strong boxes or cases, which must be securely fastened in wrappers of linen, canvas, strong paper, or other substantial material. The labels of such parcels must be so placed that they will not serve to conceal injuries to cover, and may not be folded over two sides of the cover so as to hide the edge. The address, in such cases, must be written on the cover of the parcel.

9. If a parcel intended for insurance does not, in the opinion of the officer to whom it is tendered, fulfil the foregoing conditions as to packing and fastening, he shall refuse to insure it; but the onus of properly packing and fastening the parcel lies upon the sender, and the Postmaster-General shall not be liable for loss or damage arising from defects in packing or fastening which may not be observed at the time of posting.

10. Unless parcels containing watches, except those in nickel or other base metal covers, jewellery (including precious stones), or any article of gold or silver, be insured for at least part of their value, they shall not be sent by Parcel Post to or viâ the United Kingdom, or to Ceylon, India, or Germany. Parcels containing articles of high value addressed to New Zealand must be insured. Any such parcels posted uninsured must, if practicable, be returned to the sender on payment of a fee of 6*d.* per parcel.

A fee of 6*d.* shall be collected on the delivery of every uninsured parcel received from the United Kingdom, or India, or Germany, and found to contain watches, except those in nickel or other base metal covers, jewellery, or any article of gold or silver.

11. When an insured parcel is re-directed from one country or colony to another, a fresh insurance fee shall become payable for each such transmission; if this fee be not prepaid, it must be collected before delivery of the parcel. Insured parcels can be re-directed only to places in the Commonwealth, or to those countries to which insured parcels may be sent.

12. In the event of the contents of a parcel being damaged, the parcel shall, as far as practicable, be retained in the condition in which it was received from the office of delivery, and be submitted, when required, to the examination of a responsible officer.

13. Compensation for a parcel lost or damaged in the post shall not exceed the amount of the actual loss or damage, but no compensation shall be paid for a parcel containing any prohibited article, or which has been delivered without external trace of injury, and has been accepted without remark by the addressee, or when loss or damage arises from the act of God or the King's enemies.

14. No application for compensation shall be entertained unless made within three (3) months from date of posting of any parcel, or within six (6) months from date of posting of a parcel addressed to or viâ the United Kingdom, or to Ceylon, India, or Germany. Such application may be made to the Postal Administration of either the country of origin or of delivery, but the certificate of posting and insurance must be produced when required.

15. No legal liability to give compensation in respect of any parcel for which an insurance fee has been paid shall attach to the Postmaster-General either personally or in his official capacity. The final decision upon all questions of compensation shall rest with the Postal Administration of the country in which the loss or damage has taken place.

16. Any insurance effected contrary to the foregoing provisions shall be invalid.

17. Where not repugnant to the foregoing rules, the General Regulations relating to uninsured parcels shall apply also to insured parcels.

VALUE-PAYABLE POST.

The value-payable post is a system under which the Department undertakes to deliver registered articles sent by Parcel Post within the Commonwealth, and to recover from the addressee on delivery a specified sum of money fixed by the sender, and to remit this sum to the sender by money order, for which the usual commission will be charged.

This system is designed to meet the requirements of persons who wish to pay at the time of their receipt for articles sent to them, and also to meet the requirements of traders and others who do not wish their articles to be delivered except on payment.

1. Any article that can be sent by Parcel Post may be transmitted as a value-payable parcel. Letters may also be sent as value-payable parcels if prepaid at the letter rate of postage and handed to the parcel clerk at the counter in the same manner as in the case of parcels.

1A. No person may send any parcel by the value-payable post without certifying that it is sent in execution of a bonâ fide order.

2. Value-payable parcels may be handed in for transmission at any parcel office which is also a money order office, to be sent to any other parcel office which is also a money order office. All such offices are distinguished in the list of parcel offices by the letters "V.P."

3. The use of the value-payable system shall be restricted to articles posted in the Commonwealth for transmission by parcel post to V.P. offices in the Commonwealth.

4. Value-payable parcels must be presented at the office of posting with the prescribed registration form, in duplicate, filled up and signed by the sender, with a certificate added that the parcel is sent in execution of a bonâ fide order. The duplicate must be signed by the parcel clerk and be returned to the sender. A requisition form for the money order, addressed to the delivering office, must also be handed in with the parcel.

5. In addition to the ordinary postage, commission on the value of the articles transmitted, at the rate of twopence on sums not exceeding ten shillings, and one penny for each additional five shillings or fraction of five shillings, must be prepaid by postage stamps affixed to the articles distinct from the postage and marked "commission." The registration fee (threepence) and the proper postage must also be prepaid by postage stamps affixed to the parcel.

6. All the necessary forms, including labels for particulars of value &c., which must be affixed to the parcel, shall be supplied free of charge at any V.P. office. All forms must be filled in by the sender, and officers of the Department must not assist in filling in such forms or alter them.

7. Value-payable articles may be indorsed by the senders with a special request that they be returned to the senders if not claimed within a specified time, not being less than fourteen days, and parcels with such indorsements must be promptly returned free of charge at the expiration of the period fixed by the indorsement.

8. Value-payable articles must be delivered at the V.P. office nearest to the address, to the addressee, or any person authorised in writing by him to receive them. The delivering office must advise the addressee under registered cover that a value-payable parcel will be delivered to him or his order on payment of the specified sum. On no account must value-payable parcels be opened and examined by the addressees before delivery and payment of the sums specified.

9. Immediately upon collection of the amount due on the article, or at the latest on the day following its collection, such amount shall be remitted to the despatching office by means of a money order, less the usual commission on such order.

The addressee of the article shall be described in the money order letter of advice as the sender of the order, or the "remitter," and the person or firm by whom the parcel was sent shall be described in such letter of advice as the person to whom the order is payable, or the "payee."

10. Immediately on receipt at the despatching office of money orders in favour of senders of value-payable articles, they must be entered in the value-payable journal, and the senders advised. The money orders must be handed to the persons in whose favour they are advised (that is, the senders of the value-payable articles), and their receipts taken in the value-payable journal opposite the record of the article.

11. If the addressee of a value-payable article shall refuse delivery, or omit to take delivery of it within the period specified by indorsement, at the latest within a month from the date of receipt at the delivering office, it must be returned to the sender free of charge upon a receipt being given for it in the value-payable journal opposite the record of the article. Under no circumstance shall any portion of the postage, commission, or fees be returned to the sender.

12. After three months from the date of receipt at the post office of a value-payable article, no claim in respect thereof shall be entertained by the Postmaster-General.

NOTE.—V.P. parcels must be advised to the office to which they are despatched on the special V.P. parcel bill (as supplied to all offices). On receipt they must be checked and entered in V.P. register, and if for despatch to another office they must be re-advised on V.P. bill, and the presence of V.P. parcels in the mail must be noted on ordinary parcel bill. All V.P. parcels must have the proper coloured label attached; this is the only marking necessary.

MONEY ORDERS.

The safest and best way to send small remittances by post is by money order.

If a letter containing a money order should go astray, the money may be obtained by means of a duplicate order. Information as to payment may be given to the remitter or the payee.

The money order system also affords facilities for the rapid transmission of remittances, which is done by means of telegraph money orders.

The remitter of a money order is the person who sends the money, and the payee is the person who is to receive it.

Money orders shall be issued and paid as under:—

At the Chief Money Order Office of each State—Monday to Friday, 9·30 a.m. to 3·30 p.m.; Saturday, 9·30 a.m. to noon.

At all other Money Order Offices within the Commonwealth daily, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; but offices may be opened and closed at other hours when deemed necessary by the Postmaster-General.

The rates of commission chargeable for the issue of money orders shall be:—

If payable in—	For sums—

United Kingdom, other British Possessions, and Foreign Countries	6d. for each pound or fraction of a pound.

Applications for money orders must be in writing, and must contain the information necessary to insure payment to the proper person. The Christian names at full length must be furnished if possible, not merely the initials. The usual designation of a corporation, company, society, firm, official title, &c., will suffice as remitter or payee. The name of the State or Country, in addition to the town where payment is desired, must be stated, as towns of the same name exist in different parts of the world, such as Bristol, Croydon, Campbelltown, Gladstone, Ipswich, Maitland, Maryborough, Newcastle, Perth, Richmond, Queenstown, Wellington, &c. The address of the remitter must also be furnished in order that he may be communicated with if necessary. Forms of application may be obtained at any Money Order Office.

No single order payable in the Commonwealth, New Zealand, Canada, Germany, India, or the United States of America may be issued for more than £20; to all other places the limit is £10 except that the maximum amount of a money order from New South Wales or Victoria to Italy may be £20. Two or more orders may be obtained when it is desired to remit larger amounts. No order may contain a fraction of a penny.

The original order of money orders payable in the Commonwealth, New Zealand, British Bechuanaland, Canada, Cape Colony, Hong-Kong, and agencies in China, Italy, Italian offices on the Red Sea, Japan, Mauritius, Natal, Orange River Colony, Straits Settlement, Transvaal, Tunis, United Kingdom, or United States of America must be forwarded to the payee. The original order of money orders payable in Corea must also be forwarded to the payee, whose full address (and in the vernacular if possible when he is a native) must be given. In all other cases the remitter must retain the order issued here, as payment is not made upon orders issued in the Commonwealth, but upon orders issued either by the paying country or by an intermediary office, and forwarded by post to the payee in accordance with the address furnished by the remitter. The complete postal address must therefore be given, and the remitter must advise the payee of the name of the former as given to the issuing office, and also of the fact that delay in payment of the money may occur, owing to the transmission of the advice through an intermediary office. When applying for the issue of orders payable in Italy, Italian offices on the Red Sea, or Tunis, the full address of the payee must be given. The name of payee, his father's name, tribe, or caste, and the village, or town, and district in which the payee resides must be furnished by the remitter of orders issued for payment in India to natives of that country.

The amounts of orders issued in the Commonwealth on India are paid in rupees, annas, and pice. The rupee is the standard of value in India, but as its value is subject to constant variation no tables of conversion can be given. All orders on India are issued in sterling, and the equivalent in rupees is settled by the Indian Post Office on arrival of the advice list from Australia.

Orders drawn in India on the Commonwealth are issued in the currency of India, and the equivalent in sterling is calculated by the Indian Post Office at the rate of exchange in that country at the date of preparing the advice list for despatch to Australia.

Orders drawn on Canada and the United States of America, Germany, and Italy, are payable in the currency of those countries, £1 being equivalent to 4 dollars 87 cents, 20 marks 40 pfennings, and 25 francs 20 centimes respectively.

Remittances may be made by telegraph:—

To and from Money Order Offices in the Commonwealth which are also Telegraph or Telephone Offices, and to New Zealand.

The charge for a telegraph money order shall be the cost of the telegram of advice (irrespective of the number of orders issued, provided they be from the same remitter to the same payee, and the numbers be consecutive), in addition to the ordinary commission. The Christian name of the remitter will not be transmitted in the telegram of advice of orders payable in or received from New Zealand.

The remitter must also send a telegram to the payee, advising the transmission of the money, which telegram must be produced by the payee when applying for payment.

Telegraph money orders may be paid through a bank, and any other order may be crossed for payment through a bank, in which case it shall not be paid unless besides being signed by the payee it be presented by a bank official, and bear an impression of the bank's stamp.

When persons apply for payment they must state their own name (unless personally known to the paying officer), and also the name of the remitter. Necessary receipts must be given.

If payment of a money order be refused in consequence of the replies to questions not being in accordance with the information held by the officer, the applicant must communicate with the remitter requesting him to apply to the issuing office for the alteration required.

An order once issued shall not be cancelled, and if repayment, alteration of name of payee, correction of error in name of remitter or payee, or transfer of payment to a different office be required, application must be made on a form provided for the purpose, and obtainable at any Money Order Office. Every such application must be accompanied by postage stamps or a postal note equal in value to the amount of commission chargeable in the State on an order for a like sum.

The remitters of money orders may apply at the issuing office for an alteration in the name of the payee or remitter, and it may be granted provided the application is in writing and the issuing officer is satisfied that the applicant is the remitter. If a telegraph order, the alteration shall only be sent by post.

If it be desired to stop payment of an order payable in any State of the Commonwealth, notice, accompanied by a second commission, must be sent to the office at which the order is payable.

If a money order payable in any State of the Commonwealth be lost, a duplicate may be obtained on application to the Chief Money Order Office, and on payment of a commission equal to that on an original order for a like amount. Printed forms of application may be obtained at any Money Order Office. In the case of orders payable beyond the Commonwealth, application must be made by the payee to the Chief Office of the country in which the order is payable.

The transfer of money orders payable in the Commonwealth to any other Money Order Office in the Commonwealth may be arranged on the following conditions:—

(a) The application must be made by the payee in writing, and must contain the names of the payee and remitter;

(b) The money order must be enclosed, and be correctly receipted by the payee;

(c) If a telegraph order, it shall only be transferred by post on receipt of remitter's message to payee with an instruction to transfer or a receipt written thereon properly signed by the payee.

Repayment of money orders issued in the Commonwealth may be applied for by the remitters. Application must be made in writing, and must be made to the issuing office if convenient; if not, it may be made direct to the Chief Money Order Office of the State. It must be stated on the application if the remitter has the money order; and if it be a telegraph order it must be so stated, and the original receipt given by the officer who issued it must be sent with the application. As repayment cannot be made until payment has been cancelled at the office on which the money order was drawn, sufficient time for this must be allowed by the applicant.

No application shall be entertained for compensation for alleged loss or injury owing to the non-payment of a money order at the expected time. After paying an order, by whomsoever presented, the Postmaster-General shall not be liable to any further claim.

If payment of an order, whether issued in the Commonwealth or elsewhere, be not obtained before the end of the twelfth calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in January, and not paid before the end of the following January), all claim to the money will be lost. Nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, will be considered.

A special form of money order, with or without advice, may be issued in connection with the "Old-age Pension system" or for any other specific purpose by the authority of the Postmaster-General.

No stamp duty is charged on any money order issued or paid within the Commonwealth.

INDIA.

Amounts of Money Orders issued in Tasmania on India are paid in Rupees, Annas, and Pies; the Rupee being the standard of value in India.

As, however, the value of the Rupee is subject to constant variation, no tables of conversion can be given. All Orders on India are issued in sterling, and the equivalent in Rupees is settled by the Post Office at Bombay on the arrival of the Advice List from Hobart.

Money Orders drawn in India on Tasmania are issued in the currency of India, and the equivalent in sterling is calculated by the Post Office at Bombay at the rate of exchange current in India at the date of preparing the Advice List for despatch to Hobart.

* Orders passed through the London Office are subject to deductions—see above.

† Austria.

The amounts of Money Orders issued in the United Kingdom upon Austria are converted at the London Office into Francs and Centimes, as shown in this column; and at the office of Vienna the sums are converted into Austro-Hungarian money in accordance with the value of the piece of 20 Francs in gold, current in that city on the day on which the Advice Lists are received from London.

POSTAL NOTES.

Postal Notes may be obtained at—

The Chief Money Order Office.—Monday to Friday, 9·30 a.m. to 3·30 p.m.; Saturday, 9·30 a.m. to noon.

The Stamps Sales Office, General Post Office in each State.—During office hours when the Money Order Office is closed.

At most post offices in the Commonwealth.—During the hours they are open for the sale of stamps.

They shall be payable at all postal note offices, during the hours the latter are open for the transaction of business.

The denominations of postal notes issued, and the commission or poundage charged thereon, shall be as follow:—

Denomination.	Commission or Poundage.	Denomination.	Commission or Poundage.	Denomination.	Commission or Poundage.
1s.	½d.	3s. 6d.	1d.	10s.	3d.
1s. 6d.	½d.	4s	1d.	10s. 6d.	3d.
2s.	1d.	4s. 6d.	1d.	15s.	3d.
2s. 6d.	1d.	5s.	1½d.	20s.	3d.
3s.	1d.	7s. 6d.	2d.

The values of the notes have been so arranged that any sum in shillings and sixpences up to £1 can be remitted by not more than two of these notes.

Broken amounts not exceeding 5*d.* (but not fractions of a penny) may be added by affixing unobliterated and unperforated postage stamps of the State of issue to the face of a note, when the value of the notes and stamps together will be paid.

The name of the person to whom it is desired payment shall be made may be inserted in the space provided for that purpose, in which case the note must be receipted by such person, and if it be presented for payment by any other person he must also receipt the note. The name of a money order or postal note office at which it is desired payment shall be made may be inserted, when (except as mentioned below) the postal note shall be payable at that office only.

A postal note may be crossed (like a cheque), when it shall be paid only through a bank. A note so crossed may be paid at any money order or postal note office in the Commonwealth, notwithstanding that the name of an office other than that at which it is presented has been inserted. Notes so crossed must, besides being signed by the payee, be presented by a bank official and bear an impression of the bank's stamp.

If the spaces for name of payee and paying office be not filled up, or if the note be made payable to "Bearer," the value thereof may be paid at any money order or postal note office in the Commonwealth, on the person by whom it is presented duly receipting the same.

The person to whom a postal note is issued should keep a record of the number, date, and name of office of issue, to facilitate inquiry if the note be lost.

After a postal note has been paid, by whomsoever presented, the Postmaster-General shall not be liable for any further claim.

After the expiration of six months from the last day of the month of issue, a postal note shall be cashed only at the General Post Office of the State of issue and on payment of a commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, for each period of six months, or portion thereof, beyond the first six months from month of issue; the amount of such commission must be affixed in unobliterated and unperforated postage stamps of the State to the face of the note. A postal note presented for payment after six months from the month of issue, shall not be paid until reference has been made to the Chief Money Order Office of the State.

If a postal note contain any alteration or erasure, or be cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

No stamp duty is charged on any postal note issued or paid within the Commonwealth.
